

Registered Yoga Teacher

Job Type:Part-time, 10-15 hours per week

Hourly Wage: We offer competitive wages and perks that will be discussed in your interview

Job Description

We're looking for an inspired, positive individual to teach yoga classes, and provide friendly customer service while creating an atmosphere of calm and sense of community. The RYT works alongside other team members and reports to the Manager. Duties include, but are not limited to the following:

- Responsible for opening and closing procedures, including balancing cash register
- Greets customers with a smile as they enter the store and provides awesome service
- Responsible for processing payments and setting up autopay contracts
- Offers information and guidance on product selection, class types and memberships to clients in person and over the phone
- Sequences and instructs yoga classes according to scheduled class type
- Housekeeping; including general cleaning of entire space, laundry & restocking
- Follows client sign-in process with Mind Body Online
- Books massage therapy appointments for clients
- Completes all daily tasks set out by Manager

Job Requirements

- Minimum 200hr RYT training; additional training and teaching experience an asset
- Consistent yoga practice
- Excited about teaching more than 1 class type
- Minimum of 1 year retail and/or customer service experience
- Strong interpersonal, organizational and time management skills
- Self-motivated and independent work style
- Excellent computer skills using Windows, MS Word & Excel, and Google Drive; experience with Mindbody Online Software an asset
- Must be available at least 3 days of the week and willing to work weekday morning, daytime and evening as well as weekends

To apply, please email Kayla and Tara at info@saltiyoga.ca and briefly outline what makes you a great fit for this position and why you are applying (in lieu of cover letter). Please include a resume, teaching certificate and your availability in your email. Only applicants who follow this process will be considered for the position. We will uphold your privacy by keep all applications confidential.