

About the Owner

Chrissy Vogel Brown is a former University of Florida Gator gymnast. She is a 6-time All-American, and was on the All-SEC Academic Honor Roll for all years eligible. Chrissy was the second UF gymnast to have scored a perfect 10.0 on the floor exercise. In addition, she was a USA Gymnastics Junior Olympic Level 10 National Champion in the all-around, and has won several State of Florida and Regional (8 states) all-around and event titles as well. Chrissy has a Master's Degree in Education, and has kept her certification to teach in the state of Florida current. She has been coaching for over 20 years, and is excited to have the opportunity to coach and run her own facility here in Venice.

Fun facts:

- started gymnastics at 5 years old
- made the competitive team at 6 years old
- won her first Level 10/Class I State Champion title at the age of 12
- started coaching at the age of 18
- loves football
- likes to play volleyball, even though she's short!
- has lived in Florida all her life, and in Venice for 7 years
- has coached multiple gymnasts to USA Gymnastics State and AAU State and Junior Olympic titles