

WALLACE HART

1915-1990

Wallace A. Hart, 74, longtime Caseville area businessman, died Saturday, March 24, 1990 at his home after a long illness.

He was born April 13, 1915 in Chandler Township, son of the late Albert and Anastacha (O'Conner) Hart.

He and Alice Farver were married Jan. 21, 1950 in Bad Axe.

Mr. Hart moved to Flint at the age of seven. He was employed at Buick and the Butterfield Theaters until 1942 when he joined the U.S. Army. He served in the Europe and African Theater.

After his service time, Mr. Hart attended Ferris State College for two years. He moved to Caseville, where he built the Bay Theater in 1948. In 1960 he added the Bay Window Restaurant to his business. He sold the businesses and retired in 1975. After his retirement, Mr. Hart sold real estate for Power Agency for several years.

Mr. Hart was a past member of the Caseville Chamber of Commerce and Masons, and was a former Village Council Trustee. He also was a member of Caseville United Methodist Church, Caseville Eagles, and Caseville American Legion.

Surviving are his wife, Alice; two sons, Wallace (Marion) Hart, Lansing, and Kevin Hart, St. Louis; one daughter, Virginia (Thomas) Kowalski, St. Louis; six grandchildren; and three sisters, Ann (Don) Lynk, Virginia Thompson and Delores (Jim) Vincent, all of Lapeer.

A brother, Thomas Hart, and a sister, Margaret Cannon, preceded him in death.

Services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville. The Rev. John Hamilton, pastor at Caseville United Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Caseville Township Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon, or the American Cancer Society
