Sew on and Sew Forth

Thanksgiving is a time of gratitude and a time to reflect on things and people you might have taken for granted that most deserve our expressions of appreciation.

With that I thank retiring board members Maria Rivest, Newsletter and Social Media; Judy Martin, Secretary; Jeanne Steidtman, Hospitality; Pat Brown, Membership, and Gina Knierim, Librarian. I will miss working with you as a board member but look forward to staying in touch.

Thank you to new and continuing board members Laura Sanders, Membership; Kirsten Weiss, Planning/Programs; Nancy Fenske, Hospitality; Catherine Rolfson, Librarian; Ginger Wanserski, Treasurer, Colleen Schneider, Historian, and Sharon Matusevicius and Sue Causey, Newsletter and Social Media. I am most grateful to you as you are stewards of our guild.

Thank you to Mary Wolter and Kitty Friend who will chair the 2022 quilt show and all those who volunteered to serve on their committee. Thank you too to charity quilt project chairs: Barb Vallone, TC Wiley, Regina Scott Brooks and Nancy Larsen. And thanks to all of you who joined our Zoom meetings and made the last Monday of each month memorable.

Until next month...with a grateful heart I want to again express my sincere gratitude to all of you. Thanksgiving blessings.

Looking ahead to January 2022

Our September presenter, Julia McLeod of juliamcleodquilts@gmail.com will return virtually in January to conduct a workshop. This gives you a little more time to collect some of those non-traditional quilting fabrics including silks – any old ties or blouses in your closet you want to recycle? Or check out your local thrift shop for fun fabric finds!

Starting With Silk a Workshop with Julia McLeod

In this workshop you will learn how to use silk fabrics in your quilts. Gather a selection of silk fabrics. If you have none, start at the thrift shop: This class can be completed using a handful of neckties and a plain silk blouse or jacket. You can also use typical quilters cottons if you're curious to learn the two techniques.

In this 6-hour class we will:

- Identify silk fabrics and distinguish them from those made from other fibers
  - Discuss fusible stabilizers and how to use them
  - Learn an improvisational crazy-piecing method
  - Learn a foundation piecing technique.

We will draft our own simple muslin foundations. Many of you will complete the sample shown, measuring 20" square.

Starting with Silk:

Date: Sunday, January 16

Time: 12 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Location: Zoom

Cost: $30 LHQ member

$35 non-guild member

To register for the workshop, contact Laura Sanders at lauraysan@outlook.com or call 262-672-5014. Invite a friend to join you!

Hello everyone!

This year we were able to provide 10 quilts to the Boland Hall, the Vet's home in Union Grove. My photo does not do justice to the quilts that were made. I want to thank everyone who sewed and donated to this worthy cause. ~ Regina

Quilt Show News:

The next Lighthouse Quilt show is scheduled for October 8-9, 2022.

The quilt show boutique is requesting items for the boutique. As we move into the holiday seasons and you are busy creating beautiful items for any of the upcoming holidays or just fun, handmade items, please consider creating an extra item or two, three, four...for the boutique! We appreciate your talent and generosity!

Thank you,
Lisa Koenen Boutique co-chair

Committee Chair is also needed for Vendors, Set up, Take Down and White Glove.
Please contact Kitty Friend or Mary Wolter if you would like to help.

October General Meeting Minutes

Brenda Gael Smith from New South Wales, Australia was guest speaker. Her program centered on her quilt journey and trunk show. A workshop on Fundamentally Circles was held Oct. 26.

Mary Wolter and Kitty Friend gave an update on the quilt show. Board President assured them that funds would be made available if the show should present a deficit. There is still a need for someone to chair Vendors, Set Up, White Glove and Take Down. Fountain Hall owner has passed away and Mary will contact the hall to confirm our contract will be honored as is.

Members were reminded to submit their membership forms before year end. This will give the board a general idea of the number of members and funds that will be available for 2022.

Submitted by Pat Henningfeld

In Case You Missed It

Brenda Gael Smith, all the way from New South Wales, Australia, was our October guest speaker. Through Zoom, she shared her quilting journey and her quilts, focusing on elements of surprise, color, shape and texture. A workshop was held the next day. To see what you missed go to brendagaelsmith.com.

All members are asked to complete a new membership form. Although you have until Feb. 28 to submit, we ask that you do so early as possible. Your checks will not be deposited until 2022.

Thanks to those who may have donated a quilt or blanket to "Fill the Van" at Sew n Save, Oct. 22-23. Many Afghan refugees at Camp McCoy are appreciative of all donations. When they leave for their new homes, they will take them with.

Once again, I am asking for a volunteer to step forward to serve on the board as VP of Planning/Programs or Secretary.

Keep informed by reading your newsletter. If you have any questions or concerns, call me.
