| The Federal savings is 15% on the first $200 and 29% on any additional contributions.The Provincial savings is 8.7% on the first $200 and 21.8% on any additional contributions.Therefore, if you make donations around $200 in a year, it is better to save them until the following year, if you do not need the short-term cash. That way, additional money will be at the higher rate – 50.8% (federal and provincial together). |                     |                             |                            |   |  |
