

Crossroads Outpost

Lamoille, Nevada

Lamoille Community Presbyterian Church

Our Vision

We stand together at the crossroads where God's powerful love compels us to worship Him fully, follow Jesus daily, and live in the Spirit joyfully.

Our Mission

Our mission is to pursue this vision with commitment, character, and in community.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP

Where do you live?

A man who resided near the border of two states had been told for years his house was in Minnesota. But when a new survey revealed that he actually lived in Wisconsin, he proclaimed, "Thank goodness! I never could bear those cold Minnesota winters."

Defining where we live certainly affects our attitude. Followers of Jesus, or saints, consider their true home to be in God's dynamic presence. St. Paul was so connected to God through prayer that mystical experiences left him not knowing whether he was in or out of his body (see 2 Corinthians 12:1-10). Living with one foot in heaven and the other on the way there, Paul could know peace. "Whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's," he concludes (Romans 14:8). Christian saints who are still living on earth can rest assured: Our true home is always with the Lord.

Honoring our veterans

Veterans Day has its roots in what was called Armistice Day, when a peace agreement ended World War I on November 11, 1918. President Wilson proclaimed that Armistice Day was to be marked with solemn pride in heroism and with gratitude for victory as well as the "opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice." In 1954, the remembrance was renamed Veterans Day to honor all U.S. military personnel. It's a reminder to pray for and honor all who serve and sacrifice, to support and assist their families, and to pray that God will bring peace on earth.

CHURCH HAPPENINGS

The Lamoille Harvest Festival held on October 2, 2021 was a huge success. The church brought in well over $2,000 profit. We had a great turn out on vendors & buyers. Everyone was talking about how nice it was to get out again & mingle with others again. The Deacon's have decided on $800 going towards the rebuilding of Lamoille Camp, another $800 going to CADV, ($500 building fund, $300 gift cards to clients), $300 to Underdog Ministries, (homeless), and another $300 to Northern NV Moses Project, foster families and children.

A & A Creations

This is a funny story of the winner of Kevin's horn lamp. The gal that wanted to buy tickets for the lamp was out of cash, so Matt talked her into using the ATM machine that was on site. Low & behold, she won the lamp. Kevin Hull donated the horn lamp that brought in a whopping $320. Thank you Kevin.

A BIG Thank you to all who donated their time, talents, products to sell, setting up, cleaning, and hauling things back to the church. You are truly appreciated.

A new Thanksgiving tradition

At Thanksgiving, we give thanks for things (food, home, clothing, work) and loved ones (family, friends, pets). But if the people we name aren't present, they may never know how precious they are to us. This November, start a new tradition by writing notes of thanks to people you appreciate.

Follow Paul's model of starting letters with thanksgiving: "First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world" (Romans 1:8, NIV). Notice how he thanks his addressees by thanking God for them. Paul is specific too, not writing, "Thanks for everything!"

Expressing genuine thanksgiving to God and another person, you might write something like this:

Dear Judy,

This Thanksgiving I'm thinking about special people in my life. You are one! I thank God for our friendship, for your strong witness for Jesus and for your willingness to lend a hand as a substitute teacher. (Your chocolate cookies are icing on the cake!) I praise God for you!

Sincerely, Joan

Thanks to the Chandlers, our office has two new, sturdy desks & the old is gone. Tansy spoke up when her place of employment was getting new & the old was going to the dump. The two desks now have a new

We're super blessed & thankful for this generous donation & also that the desks wouldn't fit in the Chandlers basement...

A nurse took the tired, anxious serviceman to the bedside. "Your son is here," she said to the old man. She had to repeat the words several times before the patient's eyes opened.

Heavily sedated because of the pain of his heart attack, he dimly saw the young uniformed Marine standing outside the oxygen tent. He reached out his hand. The Marine wrapped his toughened fingers around the old man's limp ones, squeezing a message of love and encouragement.

The nurse brought a chair so that the Marine could sit beside the bed. All through the night the young Marine sat there in the poorly lighted ward, holding the old man's hand and offering him words of love and strength. Occasionally the nurse suggested that the Marine move away and rest awhile. He refused.

Whenever the nurse came into the ward, the Marine oblivious of her and the night noises of the hospital—the clanking of the oxygen tank, the laughter of the night staff members exchanging greetings, the cries and moans of the other patients. Now and then she heard him say a few gentle words. The dying man said nothing, only held tightly to his son all through the night.

Along towards dawn, the old man died. The Marine released the now lifeless hand he had been holding and went to tell the nurse. "While she did what she had to do, he waited.

Finally, she returned. She started to offer words of sympathy, but the Marine interrupted her, "who was that man?" he asked.

The nurse was startled, "He was your father," she answered.

"No, he wasn't, the Marine replied. :I never saw him before in my life."

"Then why didn't you say something when I took you to him?"

"I knew right away there had been a mistake, but I also knew he needed his son, and his son just wasn't here. When I realized that he was too sick to tell whether or not I was his son, knowing how much he needed me, I stayed. I came here tonight to find a Mr. William Grey. His son was killed in Iraq today, and I was sent to inform him. What was this Gentleman's Name?"

The nurse with tears in her eyes answered, "Mr. William Grey..."

Youth Group

The youth group made ten, big, tie blankets to be given to the hospital for patients. They did a wonderful job & had a fun filled evening.

Thanks to Barbara & Jim for Pizza for the youth & Joe & Tansy for home made Ice Cream. Joe was in charge of ice cream making. Thanks Joe & Tansy for leading our youth in the way of Our Lord.

Here's one of the youth working on a tie blanket. Looks like he was having fun by that smile on his face.
