Objective:

Description:

Teams have even numbers. (If an odd number is at practice, this still works, but one team needs to score two goals at the end) Just play soccer. But when a team scores, the opponent adds a player to the game. There will constantly be uneven sides. This player added is decided by team vote or coaches rule. Also after each goal is scored a player can make a substitution. (No one should sit too long) A team has won by scoring when the opponent has all of their players in the game.
