EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Grace Shuping has been chosen as employee of the month for September. She works as a nursing assistant at Haywood Lodge during the day and she also works at Sweet Onion in the evenings as a hostess. We are blessed to have Grace as part of our team. She is a hard worker and a great coworker. All the residents love her and she has a way of making them feel special. Thank you Grace for helping make Haywood Lodge a home away from home for our residents.

WE ♥ OUR RESIDENTS

Resident of the Month

Haywood Lodge

We are excited to have Hilda Boone selected as Haywood Lodge's resident of the month. She is an easy going, fun loving person. Her and two of her friends that also live here are called "The Three Musketeers". They love to sit out on the front porch in the rocking chairs and rock and talk. She enjoys reading her Bible and spending time with God. Hilda is such a joy to be around and talk to. Congratulations!

Spicewood

Rachael Tucker, who has been at Spicewood for approximately one and a half years has been chosen as resident of month for September. Rachel has a brother in Alaska, a sister in Pittsburgh, and a sister in Boston, Massachusetts. She was employed as a physical therapist for many years. She is very artistic, creative, and participates and helps in many of the activities offered. Rachel is a big encouragement to the residents and is loved by them and by staff also.

CAPTURE THE MOMENT

NATIONAL ASSISTED LIVING WEEK
SEPTEMBER 9-15, 2018

Capture the Moment is this year's theme for The 23rd National Assisted Living Week, which hopes to inspire residents to realize their dreams and seize the day. Simultaneously, the theme also supports reflection, as residents may look back on the pivotal moments in their lives. The theme also aims to remind assisted living staff that often the little, everyday interactions with residents can deliver high quality, person centered care. We want the years National Assisted Living Week to help overcome the stigma that older adults in assisted living communities, and other setting for that matter, don't have a purpose in life anymore. No matter your age, we should all be living life to its fullest. Assisted living caregivers help seniors realize this by supporting them with everyday tasks, while maximizing their independence and honoring their individuality.

Check out September's activity calendar to see what kind of activities we have planned to recognize National Assisted Living Week.

Let's take the time to honor our grandparents.

Congress passed the legislation proclaiming the first Sunday after Labor Day as National Grandparents Day. The statute cites the day's purpose: to honor grandparents, to give grandparents an opportunity to show love for their children's children, and to help children become aware of strength, information, and guidance older people can offer.

"Grandchildren are God's way of compensating us for growing old."

Just a note to everybody that did not make it to the "End of Summer Jam" at the Maggie Valley fairgrounds. I am sorry! You missed out on a great time and some good music. On the raffle drawings at our Haywood Lodge booth Ann Saliga won the George Foreman grill and Mitch Robinson won the utility wagon. Congratulations to both of our winners.

Senior Celebration Event

On September 7 residents will be going to a senior celebration at the Ramsey Center at WCU. There will be a lot of events for them such as: clogging, bingo, line dancing, Tai Chi, exercising, photo booths, story telling, corn hole, and a vision van just to name a few. The event will be serving the residents lunch. There will also be door prizes given away.

Senior Celebration is a day set aside to honor older adults ages 60 and up in the seven westernmost counties of North Carolina. This is a chance to show them that they are appreciated and respected.

ACTIVITIES SECTION

September is here and Halloween is just around the corner. I guess you are wondering why we are already talking about Halloween. Well, here is the reason. We have MANY, MANY spooks and goblins visit us each year wanting treats. The residents love giving candy out to the children and it takes a lot. Each year we ask for candy donations from friends, families, staff or residents. We have to get started collecting it early in order to have enough by the big night. We would appreciate any and all donations . Thank you.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
