4. Terms and Conditions: Exhibitor agrees to abide by the following conditions:

a) Exhibitor agrees to abide by all pertinent federal, state, county, and city laws, ordinances, fire and safety codes and by all pertinent regulations for the Fair.

- b) Exhibitor shall surrender premises to the Fair at the end of the license period in the same condition as received.
- c) Exhibitor accepts total responsibility for his exhibit and its' safety in relation to fire, robbery, accident, or other destructive cause, and to injury to the public which might occur within the confines of the exhibit or injury to Exhibitor or his employees or agents while on the Fairgrounds and to hold the Fair harmless there from. Insurance, which Exhibitor may desire to cover such contingencies, will be placed by Exhibitor at own expense.
- d) Exhibitor agrees he will not sublet, transfer, or assign any of the privileges of this agreement without written consent of the Fair.
- e) Fair assumes no responsibility for any property stored or placed on the premises; such property being stored or placed is at the Exhibitor's risk. This agreement releases the Fair and saves the Fair harmless from liability because of loss or damage to such property resulting from any cause whatsoever. Any property remaining on the grounds for two (2) days after contract period has expired will become property of the Fair to be removed, stored or sold at Exhibitor's expense.
- f) Exhibitor agrees to indemnify, defend, and protect the Fair against and hold and save harmless, from any and all claims, demands, suits, liability, damages, loss or costs of whatever kind of nature which might result from any action or failure to act of the Exhibitor or any of his officers, agents, employees, or other representatives, including but not limited to claim of damage or loss, harm or injury to the person or property of the Exhibitor or any of its' officers, agents, employees, or other representatives, or to any other third parties.
- g) Should acts of God, strikes, work stoppages, or any other cause not within the control of the Fair and its' Director make it impossible for the Fair to be held or the particular area to be occupied by the Exhibitor, then the Fair, and its' officers and employees are jointly released from any and all claims which may arise as a result thereof. Management shall determine and refund to the exhibitor his proportionate share of applicable payments for exhibit space received in accord with accountable expense incurred. In no event shall the Fair be liable for loss of profits, business, or any other damage to Exhibitor through Fair cancellation for such causes, and in any case not to exceed the money paid by Exhibitor to the Fair to obtain its' exhibition site.
- h) Should Exhibitor fail to comply in any material respect with terms of this agreement then payments made to the time of breach shall be retained by the Fair as liquidated damages, and management shall have the right to sell, reassign contracted space without further notice or make such use of space, as Fair deems to be in the best interest of the Fair.
- i) Fair shall have full power in interpretation and enforcement of all terms and rules contained herein and such further rules and regulations as it shall consider necessary for the proper conduct of the Fair.
- j) Cancellations of booth reservation with 30 days prior notice to opening fair date will result in a full refund of booth payment and/or deposit, cancellation of booth reservations with less than 30-day notice to opening fair date will result in zero refund of booth payment and/or deposit.

The Graham County Fair Rules, Regulations and General Information document are all made a part of this agreement and are fully incorporated herein, and the Exhibitor agrees that he has read this agreement and the conditions and stipulations and understands that they shall apply, unless amended by mutual consent in writing of parties hereto.
