The Face of God is Mercy (Pope Francis, 2016)

Is the mercy of God for me transforming my way of relating to others?
How can my presence embody the mercy of God to others experiencing existential distress?
How can mercy, tenderness and love inform my posture in society and my way of being present to the sick, especially the chronically ill?

Join Fr. Denis Belliveau, Regional Coordinator of Spiritual Care with Vitalité Health Network on Monday, March 9th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Dan Bohan Family Centre, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview as he explores the challenges we face accompanying fully those who live with life-limiting illnesses, and what we can do to overcome them. Collection taken on Ash Wednesday is for the Needs of the Canadian Church in the Holy Land

We will pray the Way of the Cross during the holy season of Lent on Friday evenings at 6:30 p.m. To make this prayer available to as many people as possible, we will celebrate it in different churches according to the following schedule:

February 28th – Holy Family	March 20th - Immaculate Heart of Mary
March 6th – St. Augustine's	March 27th – St. Augustine's
March 13th – St. Bernard's	April 3rd – St. Bernard's
	Good Friday, April 10th - Holy Family

Lent begins Ash Wednesday, February 26th. The season of Lent is characterized by the three disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. LENTEN COIN FOLDERS are available at each church.

Create in me a Clean Heart of God, a clean heart of God, create in me. We all carry some kind of 'baggage' with us...something that holds us back from experiencing the fullness of a true loving relationship with God. Throughout Lent, parishioners of St. Augustine's are invited to, not only contemplate what their personal 'baggage' might be, but consider what they can do to make a change. Write what you wish to change and deposit into the sealed box located at the main entrance of the church. The box, and its contents, will be burned in our Easter Vigil fire, symbolizing our entering into the Easter season with a clean heart.

SAINT AUGUSTINE'S ST. VINCENT DE PAUL: Due to ongoing theft and vandalism the decision was made to secure the St. Vincent de Paul Drop off Barn overnight. Signs are posted advising the public that "Donations can be made from 8 am until 8 pm only". The doors and slots will be locked shut overnight. We are sorry for any inconvenience this measure may cause and thank you for your continuing support. Serge Dufour, Manager

Exploring our Faith

What Will I Do This Year For Lent?

As I read this week's gospel and hear Jesus' counter-cultural instructions on how we should deal with the people God puts in our lives, I am reminded of one the biggest influences in my spiritual journey, Fr. Peter McKee. When someone would ask him, "do you have a minute?" he would reply, "for you, I've got two". What a marvelous tone to set for the conversation to come.

Although this gospel comes up this year just prior to the season of Lent, it gives us a pretty good idea of what our Lenten journey should look like. In an R.C.I.A. session recently I was blessed to be able to sit with our younger folks seeking to complete their initiation and talk about the upcoming season. When I say younger, they are between the ages of 8 and 14. After going through the instructions on Ash Wednesday, the change in liturgical color and the disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we had a great conversation about what it looks like to live that out in our daily lives. This is what we came up with:

Prayer: we talked about our current prayer life and then looked at what we could do to go the extra mile as Jesus invites us in today's gospel. I invited them to think of prayer as a conversation with the most loving parent you could ever imagine. If they were worried about a test at school, or a meeting with a friend or teacher, just say to God beforehand, "God, please be with me." That is as valid as the "Our Father", because prayer does not bring us into the presence of God as we are never out of the presence of God. Prayer creates a greater awareness of that presence. I think that's why Jesus invites us today to pray for our enemies; it creates for us an awareness of the presence of God within them. Our commitment was to spend an extra five minutes a day in prayer (talking to God).

Fasting: everyone had heard of the concept of "giving something up for Lent", but how can we turn that into a ministry to help others? Denying ourselves of food, for instance, can give us a better idea of what the hungry in our world have to live with daily. And you don't have to travel to the other side of the world to find the hungry, just to the other side of the city. So if we can take the money we would have spent on whatever it is we are giving up and put it toward helping a food bank, soup kitchen or shelter, then our fasting lets us answer the gospel call to give to anyone who begs from you.

Almsgiving: while most of the folks gathered had never heard of the term, almsgiving, they have certainly heard of the importance of giving. We talked about giving to the church, helping the poor and supporting worthy charities. We are reminded in today's gospel of the importance of giving to those who cannot repay. We decided that it was best to do it quietly and without fanfare so that the thanks given by the needy you are helping is given to God and not to you. And remember that generosity is not measured by how much you give, but rather, by how much you keep.

Our commitment for the last two disciplines was what we called building the "ARK", with acts of random kindness. We will try to do one kind thing each day for someone. In the end we decided that this Lent we will take advantage of every opportunity to do something good, because if it's a good thing, it's a God thing.
