

2020 Executive Leadership and Board of Directors

Becky Young/Volunteer Founding Executive Director of the Mabopane Foundation & Co-Founder of Ya Bana Village in South Africa: Becky and her husband, Stanley, live in the Swift Creek Community in Raleigh and attend Hope Community Church. They have two beautiful daughters and son-in-loves and three adorable granddaughters. Becky loves being a wife, a mom and especially a “Nana/ Nannie”! Family time is a favorite of hers each week. She also finds joy in serving the Lord at the Mission House in Apex alongside her compassionate Mabopane Family of Volunteers. And always looks forward to time spent, once or twice per year in South Africa with her extended Ya Bana Family. In her spare time, she enjoys baking, cooking, gardening, and reading. And, you’ll find her fishing with her wonderful husband the 3rd weekend of each month.

Debra Routh/Chair: Debra has been involved with the Mabopane Foundation for over 4 years and has served on the board since 2019. She lives in Holly Springs with her husband, Hal, and they are members of Summit Church- Apex campus. Besides volunteering with Mabopane, Debra likes to read, hike, and cheer on the Tar Heels and Washington Nationals baseball team!

Marjorie MacDonald Morris/Treasurer: Marjorie has been involved with the Mabopane Foundation and served on the board since 2016. She is a transplant from Pennsylvania but built her life in Raleigh, with her husband Bruce, after graduating from NC State University. Marjorie is an avid reader and genealogist; having traced her Scottish family to the 18th century.

Richard Bolyard: Richard has been an avid shopper at the Mission House for over 15 years. Richard started as a volunteer pricing china/glassware and off-site sales for various items and joined the Board over two years ago. Originally from Johnston County where he has a Bicentennial Farm, Richard attends a country church outside Clayton, NC - Baptist Center Church where he is the Church Historian. Richard lives in Apex, NC and is a member of the Sons of the American Revolutionary War. He is presently employed with the NC Department of Insurance. He is a veteran of the US Air Force and was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal. Richard has two children, Nikki and Ben.

Rupa Pereira/Secretary: Rupa began volunteering at Mabopane in 2019. She was born and raised in India and has lived in the US for half her life, but the Lord's presence and grace has been the one constant in her ever changing graph. After a satisfying corporate career, she's content being a homemaker and mom to her 2 girls - her precious investments. Sleep, meditation and watching tennis are few of her favorite things.

Joe Austin: Joe has lived in North Carolina for his entire life, and met his wife, Whitley, while they were in college. Joe and Whitley committed their lives to Christ when they were young, and the two married in 1989. They have two children, both of whom follow Christ: a son, who works as an engineer, and a daughter in law school. Whitley is a frequent volunteer at the mission house, and Joe has worked as an attorney in North Carolina for over 30 years. Joe joined the Board of Directors in 2020.

Jennifer Davis: Jennifer Davis joined the Board of Directors in 2019. She grew up in Pittsboro, North Carolina and is an active member at Pittsboro Baptist Church. She retired from UNC-CH after 30 years of service and now works full time for the Town of Pittsboro. Jennifer became active in the Mabopane Foundation because she believes in their mission and saw how God was using the ministry to change the lives of children in Ya Bana Village. She and her husband, Jimmy, have 3 grown children.
