Thank You's

Christine and Pamela read thank you cards from; Father Balish for the Guild donation for the Capital campaign fund, the students for donation for the bus, and condolence thank you notes from the families of Betty Petrosky, Rose Makosky and Delores Poland.

Old Business

- A nominating committee is still needed for the officer positions, currently President, for the spring. Christine asked that anyone who was interested see her.
- Therese Tuttle expressed interest in the position of President, which would leave the Vice-President position open.
- Treasurer and Secretary positions are currently secured.
- We are still looking for a new person to chair the Parish Family Dinner.
- We are still looking for a new person to chair the Kitchen portion of the Christmas Craft Show. When someone volunteers for one of these events Mo Thuman will continue as chair of the other event.

New Business

- The reception committee was to meet for the RCIA celebration for April 4th.
- Darlene Franz talked about the rummage sale for this year. There is a wedding scheduled on Saturday. Times and days, as well as, whether to keep the kitchen and bag day were discussed.
- Gloria Karafa reminded the Guild about helping for the Kolachi bake.
- Member Tina McCue talked about Scripture study, diocesan faith formation opportunities and about the upcoming Papal visit.

- President, Christine DePascale called for the adjournment of the meeting, which was motioned by member Teresa Craiger and seconded by member Gerri Dines.
- The motion carried and the meeting was adjourned.

After the meeting the Four officers of the guild made an executive decision to contribute $50 in the form of a Gift Card to the restaurant 422 for the "Just for Kicks" fundraising auction for John F. Kennedy Catholic School.
