WEEKLY E-LETTER, FEBRUARY 8, 2024

FEBRUARY SERVICES AT ONE ISLAND FAMILY:

11 Baires Serrano leads us in an examination of “National Freedom to Marry Day”

18 Rev. Doug Slagle “Love Stories for the Ages”

In the Valentine month of February, Rev. Doug Slagle will examine three well-known love stories with universal themes that can speak to the hearts of all.

25 Rev. Bob Murphy "In God We Trust"

This is our national motto and the Florida state motto. God is receiving a lot of mention in American politics and in the Middle East and in other places. Let's talk about God and the Unitarian Universalists.

MUSIC REPORT

This week there will be choir at 10:15 at One Island Family. All who wish to sing are invited to join us. Also, thanks to those who have come to hear my piano bar at the Little Room. I will not be playing this Sunday, February 11. There will be another Piano Player there doing a sing-along program from 5:30 to 7:30. I will be back the following week and Sunday evenings for the rest of February.

Nancy S. Hoffman, Music Director

PROJECT LIGHTHOUSE

Project Lighthouse is a youth activities, resources, and drop-in center located in the heart of Key West at 1102 Truman Ave, Key West. The staff helps runaway, homeless and at-risk street youth, many of whom have traveled throughout the country, to locate appropriate and available services such as food and medical care. Through encouragement and engagement, staff can create opportunities to explore issues of safe living situations, employment, and family contact or reunification. Our goal is to encourage each young person to become a welcome, positively contributing member of the community.
