

NOVEMBER 13 & 14, 2021
THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come.

ONE GOD

By Dennis Tavares

There can be only one Supreme Being having a divine nature, and who must be an unending spiritual immortal entity rather than a mortal material entity that can die. God is that supreme spiritual being, and possesses the defining expressions of personhood which are a spiritually based intellect and free will. For angels and humans, there is a single personal expression for each individual. The divine personhood, however, is unique in that there are three personal expressions that exist together in that one divine nature; the persons called the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. All three are equally divine, equally God. The whole of God acts whenever any of the Divine Persons acts. God is a community of three Divine Persons sharing one Divine Nature in a bond of love. This is the Divine Family, the Trinity, whom Catholics love and worship.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners

The season of Advent is almost upon us! Advent is the beginning of the Church's liturgical year, and offers us a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. In light of this, I concluded that Advent would be an appropriate time to make a few changes to the daily Mass schedule here at Our Lady of Good Counsel. These changes are being made after several weeks of observation of the attendance at daily Mass and seeking consultation with many of those who attend Mass throughout the week. Beginning with the days following this First Sunday of Advent, November 28th, the following schedule will go into effect:

Monday: No Mass

Tuesday-Friday: Mass at 12:05pm

*The First Friday of each month an additional Mass will be offered in Spanish at 6:00pm (Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 5:30pm, concluding with Benediction before Mass)

*The First Saturday of each month Mass will be offered at 9:00am in English (Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 8:30am, concluding with Benediction before Mass)

As for the reasons behind the changes: cancelling the morning Mass on Monday provides me with the opportunity to rest as well as to travel and visit family and friends on my day off. Please know that I still offer the Mass privately on my day off, wherever I may be. In regard to the Mass on Tuesday, I made the decision to change it to 12:05 for the sake of consistency, and because the afternoon Mass has been much higher in attendance. As the Monday and Tuesday Masses are a more recent addition to the parish schedule, I trust that this will not be seen as a drastic change. Lastly, I want to reintroduce the additional Masses on the first Friday and first Saturday of every month, which are days devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. These days of devotion are very important for the spiritual life of the parish and for each one of us individually. I want to thank you for your understanding in regard to these changes, and may God bless you!

In Christ,

Father Pacheco
