A Note from Fr. David

Dear Parishioners:

I would personally have wanted to mention my departure at all the Masses last weekend. But as all of you know by now, because of my retinal detachment, and the length of the healing process, I can't see to offer Mass. I feel the time has come for me to retire. It has been a wonderful 18 years serving a Communion of Saints as your shepherd. I can't tell you how much each and all of you mean to me and how deeply I will miss you. However, God's way is always the right way, and God's time is always the right time.

As soon as possible, I will become a formal resident at St. Charles Center. That means, if all goes well, I will be a supply priest for the region on weekends. So I will be seeing you again from time to time. Always remember you are never farther from me than a thought or a prayer. Please keep me in your thoughts and prayers as well.

With deepest love in the Lord Jesus,
 Fr. David L. Zink
