

Christopher P. Babisch

(November 1, 1988 - September 29, 2013)

Christopher P. Babisch, age 24, of Hume Twp. near oak Beach died Sunday morning at his home in his sleep from ongoing health problems. He was born November 1, 1988, in Pigeon to Ronald and Nancy (Mosey) Babisch and grew up in the Owendale area. Chris was a 2007 graduate of Laker High School.

Chris started working at a Roundtree Dairy Farm while in high school, staying with them for five years. He then worked at Zimba Organic Farm for a year before taking a position at Blue Diamond, where he was currently employed. Chris was a member of the Rivers Edge Community Church, Caseville and enjoyed fishing and considered himself a bit of a picker, having fun gathering scrap for a little profit. His favorite past time was spending time with his son, Elii.

Surviving are his significant other, Aerion and son, Elii of Oak Beach; parents, Ron and Nancy Babisch of Owendale; siblings, Lynette (Mike) Capehart of Fenton, Jerome Bouverette of Owendale, Dustin Bouverette of Fenton, Eric Babisch of Hermosa Beach, CA and Shanna (Rick) Gomez of Caro; Aerion's parents, Scott and Rachelle McIntyre of Kinde and her sisters, Maddy and Abby McIntyre and many nieces and nephews. Preceding him in death was his brother, Ronald Babisch Jr.

Funeral services will be conducted 1:00 PM Thursday, October 3, at the Rivers Edge Community Church, Caseville where friends may call from 11:00 AM until the time of services.

Memorial gifts may be given to the family
