

Jake's Hope QPR Training

Our mission is to educate through QPR training for suicide prevention, openly discuss mental health and create a community dedicated to STOP bullying and get connected. Accredited suicide prevention training to save lives and reduce suicidal behaviors by providing innovative and practical training. This training qualifies for Continuing Education credits.

Do you have 60 minutes to save a life?
QPR is the CPR of mental health

QPR Training includes:

- Myths and facts about Suicide
- Warning signs of suicide
- How to apply QPR
- How to offer hope and support

About us

Jake's Hope offers public and private suicide prevention training presented by a certified QPR trainer. QPR stands for Question, Persuade & Refer and is a nationally recognized suicide prevention program created by Dr. Paul Quinnett and the QPR Institute. This simple education program teaches ordinary people how to spot a suicide crisis and what steps to take to save a life.

Kari Krummel, Certified QPR Trainer

During this training you will learn about:

- Statistics on suicide nationally and in your county
- Suicide myths and facts
- Warnings signs of suicide
- Tips for asking the suicide question
- Methods for persuading suicidal individuals to get help
- How to refer an at-risk person to local resources

This training is intended for a variety of audiences including:

- General public (Appropriate for 7th grade and up)
- Parents
- Human Resources staff
- Primary care & social service providers
- Education staff
- Law enforcement, fire dept. staff, first responders & health officials

Contact us

Phone: 612-269-6729 | Email: karik@jakeshope1994.com | Web: www.jakeshope1994.com  Jake's Hope