1	She is very supportive and stands behind her teachers.	2/11/2023 11:34 AM
2	They do not take any behaviors seriously. They usually just talk to the student and no consequences happen. Students get into physical altercations in class and are returned to class. Also there was incident where there was a student from a class that broke into the classroom and stole close to 300 dollars worth of things, that student is still in that teachers class.	1/19/2023 1:10 PM

1	The school is set at the corner of Beale and Lincoln St. The freeway entrance is across Lincoln St. from the school. Trucks and cars barrel down the street and onto the ramp all day everyday, making the classrooms at that end shudder. Ambulances, fire trucks, and police cars often start their sirens as they approach the entryway. The kindergarten playground sits 5-6 feet above Beal and Lincoln. The students get a front row seat to everything driving onto the freeway ramp. They see homeless people walking by the fence. Many homeless people just walk on by. But others stand out there talking to their imaginary friends. Our fences and gates should be higher. Our entry gates should take one twist of a key to open and allow staff to enter, much like the gate on Niles that leads onto the District premises near the curriculum lab. Our staff members are out on Beale, Lincoln, King and Jefferson alley, wrestling with the locks to be able to get onto the campus as well as trying to leave. Are the employees at the District office more important than the employees at our school site? How high are the fences at the DO? Also-where is our campus supervisor? No one is walking the campus with the goal of ensuring our students' and staffs' safety. Cars are being vandalized. Where's our support?	1/25/2023 8:21 PM

1	When students are in physical altercations we were told that the admin will discipline those students. So i had an incident with 2 students that had a physical altercation in class sent them to the office admin with an attitude stated I the teacher needed to take care of it. Those are not clear expectation, either admin deals with the physical altercations or the teacher, which one is it, It shouldnt be at the convience of the admin when they pick and choose who to discipline and who doesnt.	1/19/2023 1:29 PM
