Lake Chautauqua & the Secrets of the Allegheny Mountains

Early fall is a fabulous time to visit Lake Chautauqua! The summer breeze on the lake, smaller crowds and an opportunity to overnight at the 1881 Athenaeum Hotel, together make this a perfect time to visit the mountains and lakes of Northwestern PA and New York State. Most of all, you will find the colors, charm and sites every bit as appealing as what you find by traveling miles away. Today our adventure begins by taking RT 6, one of the most scenic routes in the United States. We travel toward the Kinzua Dam, among the largest dams east of the Mississippi River. The Seneca Indians occupied this land and were forced by the U.S. Government to build the dam that controls the water flow into the Allegheny River and then into Pittsburgh. The Seneca Indian tribe settled north in Salamanca, NY, recognized as the home of the Seneca Casino! The Allegheny Forest and colors is nestled in among the towns and attractions that we will visit. The Zippo/Case Factory tour is appealing to all ages and preserves the history of lighters throughout the years! The Kinzua skywalk is the remains of the old railway bridge that was destroyed by a tornado a few years back. In the 1990's we ran these tracks on a popular train adventure! Check it out now and learn of the stories that will intrigue you as you enjoy this fabulous memorial and viewing opportunity that was restored for our pleasure. Our evening destination is the historic hotel on the shores of Lake Chautauqua. You will have time to walk the grounds and check out the area before our dinner, which is included. (Group options can include an overnight stay at the Seneca Allegheny Casino instead)

Day two will continue our adventure on the lake aboard the Chautauqua Bell Steamship. Our guide will unfold the stories of the lake as we cruise along the shoreline viewing the mansions and cottages. Our visit includes a stop at a local winery, candy store and other area shops. Continuing on, groups will have the option of stopping at Presque Isle for dinner and gaming, or spending more time at the lake and area attractions. The Lucille Ball Museum is also a nice option for your group. Call for dates and details.
