

Name _____

Date _____

Period _____

Crash Course US History 13: Slavery

1. Without what product, would the North have been unable to industrialize? _____
2. How much of the world's cotton came from the American South? _____
3. The sparse industry in the South produced what fraction of manufactured goods? _____
4. What were 2 things that the South did not have which was a disadvantage to them in the Civil War?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
5. By 1860, how many slaves were in the U.S.? _____
6. The Yeomen farmers, who were the poorest of all, were in favor of slavery - why?

7. The justification for slavery, as a way of actually caring for the slaves is called what? _____
8. Avowed Racist and all around ass-hat John C. Calhoun defended slavery as a good – what jobs did he have (which makes his views that much more upsetting)?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
9. Slaves that worked in the cotton fields worked in 'gangs' under an overseer or a what (which was another slave with a position of slight power)? _____
10. What was one way that slaves could rebel against dehumanization which could be upset by the sale of one or more of the slaves? _____
11. Though a slave learning to read/write was prohibited, some did and even a few became preachers – these preachers were looked upon with suspicion by whites and this was logical since how many uprisings were led by preachers? _____
12. The MYSTERY DOCUMENT refers to the "queen's dominions", which means what place? _____
13. What approximate number per year made the journey north in search of freedom? _____
14. The most successful slave rebellion (in that they killed some people) was what? _____
15. What was the reality of potential slave rebellion (what outcomes were likely)?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
16. In his final goodbye, John does not say "Don't forget to be awesome" but instead says "don't forget to be _____" – what does he replace awesome with? _____