Evelyn Jenkins Evans (Grimes)

Evelyn Jenkins Evans (Grimes), 99, passed away Tuesday, April 10, 2012 at Trinity Care Homes in Danville, Calif., where she had lived for the past four years.

Born to Paul and Cornelia Jenkins in Dallas, Texas, she graduated from The Principia Junior College in St. Louis, Mo. in 1932. She moved with her husband, Douglas A. Grimes, and her two sons, Joseph F. Grimes and Paul Douglas Grimes, to Bad Axe in 1939, where they resided until 1952. She was active in many community groups, including women's club, bridge club and PTA. She participated in an activity that reflected the patriotic fervor in the community during WW II. She, among others, stood watches at the top of the old court house building looking for foreign aircraft. She also provided transportation for her sons and friends to numerous sporting events all over the Thumb.

She gave birth to her youngest child, Cornelia Ann Grimes in Hubbard Memorial Hospital on Nov. 19, 1950. She and her family were members of the First Church of Christ Science in Caro.

Her husband, Douglas, preceded her in death in 1985. She leaves three children, Joseph, of Saint Simons Island, Ga., Paul of Tucson, Ariz., and Ann of Oakland, Calif.; four grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

A memorial service is being planned in Fort Myers, Fla., where her ashes and those of her sister Alice Jean Oberlink, who passed in February, will be spread.
