COUNCIL'S CORNER

Painesville City Council

Back Row: Nick Augustine, Christine Shoop, Katie Jenkins and Jim Fodor

March brings with it the promise of gardening and warm(er), sunny days. There are also a few dates to keep in mind as we (hopefully) watch the weather change.

Sunday, March 8 is the start of Daylight Saving Time, which begins at 2:00 a.m. Don't forget to 'spring forward' and set your clocks ahead one hour. March 8 is also International Women's Day, which is a day that not only celebrates the achievements of women and the progress made toward women's rights, but brings attention to the ongoing struggles for equality around the world.

Thursday, March 19 brings about the spring equinox, marking the beginning of spring in the Northern Hemisphere. On this day, the sun is directly over earth's equator. I think we all hope for a little bit more sun here in Painesville as well.

As we all look forward to the buds and blooms of spring, let's not forget that yard waste collection begins on April 1st. All yard waste must be in a brown paper bag and any items 4' in length or longer must be tied, bundled or somehow contained. Yard waste is collected every other week, and is collected at the same time as your scheduled garbage/recycling day.

Finally, I would like to thank the residents of Ward II for showing their faith in me by electing me to another term on council. Thank you!

Katie Jenkins
Councilwoman Ward II

April 1st is National Census Day

The 2020 Census is closer than you think! April 1 is National Census Day. Here's are some quick reminders:

It's easier than ever to respond to the Census. You have three options for responding: online, by phone or by mail. In mid-March, households will begin receiving official mail with detailed information on how to respond to the 2020 Census. Once you respond, you will stop getting mail!

If you do not respond by April 1, a U.S. Census Taker will walk your neighborhood to follow up on missing information. Don't have internet access at home? No problem! Morley Library is trained and ready to help you access the Census online at the library.

The U.S. Census is 100% confidential and does not ask if you are a U.S. Citizen. All Census responses are kept confidential and private. It's the law. Your responses cannot be shared and cannot be used against you by any government agency or court in any way. Under Title 13 of the U.S. Code, the Census Bureau cannot release any identifiable information about individuals, households, or businesses, even to law enforcement agencies, like ICE or the FBI. All Census Bureau staff take a lifetime oath to protect your personal information, and any violation comes with a penalty of up to $250,000 and/or up to 5 years in prison. They take confidentiality very seriously!

is expected of them as landlords within the city. In addition, it assists in the prevention and correction of property maintenance violations pertaining to residential rental properties in order to maintain safe and attractive neighborhoods for the benefit of all residents.

For properties registered after June 1, 2014, proof of completion should be provided within six months of registration. Please contact Officer Quintillo at 440-392-5819 for further information or questions about this program.

Bankruptcy 101:

SAYING GOODBYE TO THE STIGMA OF BANKRUPTCY

In 2011 there were 1.4 million consumer bankruptcy filings (Federal Court Website- www.uscourts.gov). Since then consumer bankruptcy filings have averaged over 1 million per year. Bankruptcy is now commonplace because it has become the only affordable source of financial planning for a large segment of the financially distressed population. This recessionary economy which is now the new and apparently sustained state of the world's financial outlook has dried up funds that used to be available through lending institutions, family members, savings and home equity. It is further complicated by creditors' general unwillingness to work with debtors by offering reasonable payment plans to help them get caught up. So, for many people, the choice becomes whether to pay bills or put food on the table.

Beyond this, there is the continued fallout from the housing crisis and the still high number of foreclosures and people who are "underwater" on their mortgages. For these people, the choice is pay bills or lose the roof over their head. There is also extremely high inflation and ever-increasing gas prices with no end in sight. It used to be that grocery items would increase in penny increments. Now, it is not unusual to see them increase in fifty cent or even one dollar or greater increments. Further, there are the government entities at every level which are constantly looking for anything and everything that can be taxed, ticketed, or fined. On top of this and most pernicious and reprehensible is the human greed factor: The politicians who live lavishly off the sweat of the taxpayer's brow and put their own self interest, always, above that of the people. The large corporations who overcharge and engage in less than ethical business practices. And certain individuals and businesses who out of desperation or dishonesty take advantage of others in the name of the almighty dollar. Certainly, it is not all politicians, corporations, people or businesses. But it is too many.

The law of Bankruptcy is the only tool that middle-class Americans must level the playing field. The fact is without it many people would be homeless or unable to survive. When I started in this business twenty-six years ago there was a stigma attached to filing bankruptcy. And it really was not justified even then because the largest part of our clientele was made up of people who had catastrophic medical bills and no insurance. But it was perpetuated because there were a certain percentage of filings attributable to people who had simply "over lived" by spending too much on fancy cars, vacations, clothes and "toys" and used the filing to "skate" out of their debt. This type of bankruptcy simply no longer exists. Yes, it was tightened up in 2005 with the introduction of more stringent laws. But the main reason it does not exist anymore is because people have not had the money or the mindset to engage in that type of frivolous spending for some time. Moreover, the government has forced lenders to tighten credit to the extent that people are not able to borrow for frivolous unsecured purchases anymore.

The people who use bankruptcy now are honest, decent people who are using it to survive. They basically fall into two types. First, there are the people who are in an emergency. They are using bankruptcy (whether chapter 7 or chapter 13) to stop a lawsuit, a foreclosure, creditor harassment, a garnishment, utility shutoff, prevent a car from being repossessed or any number of the other types of relief it provides. And, second, are the people who see the disaster coming and want to cut it off at the pass so to speak. Either way, Bankruptcy is financial planning. It is a mechanism by which one can exercise control over his or her financial future in a positive way.

Further, the stigma is largely gone. It has become like divorce. In the fifties and sixties people who got divorced were stigmatized. Now it is the norm. Anyone that made comments about a person because they got a divorce, nowadays, would be considered ignorant. It is the same with bankruptcy. Bankruptcy is a relatively affordable and fast mechanism by which one in financial distress can simplify their lives and regain their peace of mind. That is why so many people are using it. I always try to remind and encourage people that if you are truly in financial distress you need to recognize it and admit it so that you can fix it. You need to know financial hardship is temporary and fixable. Like anything, the earlier you fix it the better off you'll be. And the more money you and your family will have to start fresh and begin to live in peace again.

Mentor Window has earned the home improvement industry's coveted Angie's List Super Service Award for the 8th year in a row. This award reflects exemplary years of service provided to customers throughout Northeast Ohio, along with honest, fair prices.

Steve Douglas the owner of Mentor Window was asked about how they continue having such success in the home improvement industry. We won't just hire anyone to catch up if we are backed up a bit, quality is at the top of our list when it comes to workmanship. When it comes to pricing, we are straight forward with people, they don't want to hear any buy 1 get 1 free nonsense. They want a fair, honest price up front without all the gimmicks you see out there in advertising. We treat each and every one of our customers like family."

"Only about 5% of the Home Improvement companies in Northeast Ohio have performed consistently well enough to earn our Super Service Award," said Angie (founder of Angie's List). "It's a really high standard."

Laketran Seeks Public Input on New Route Serving Tyler Blvd., Mentor High School, Mentor-on-the-Lake and Mentor Headlands

Laketran is hosting a series of public hearings to gain public input on a new fixed route bus line that would serve Tyler Boulevard, Mentor-on-the-Lake, Mentor Headlands, and parts of Center Street and Heisley Road as well as connect to Great Lakes Mall and Lakeland Community College.

The new route, made possible by the passage of Laketran's sales tax levy last November, will provide access for 36,000 residents and to 27,000 jobs.

"This is an ambitious route that aims to address many of top service requests we receive which is route service to Tyler Boulevard, Mentor Headlands and Mentor-on-the-Lake," explained Laketran CEO

Ben Capelle. "Route 8 will improve access to manufacturing and retail jobs, shopping, and education. But first we want feedback from residents about how they envision this route to best serve them."

The Route 8 public hearing schedule is:

- Wednesday, March 4 from 6 p.m. to 7p.m. at Mentor Civic Center – 2nd Floor Conference Room
- Tuesday, March 10 from 6 p.m. to 7p.m at Mentor-on-the-Lake Community Room

Laketran will also be presenting options for a potential Route 3 modification to improve transit access to north end of Lost Nation Road in Willoughby.

The meetings will be an open house format and the public is encouraged to come anytime within the hour. The public will view and rank preferences on route designs.

Laketran is providing free Dial-a-Ride transportation to all meetings. Dial-a-Ride reservations are required 2-12 days in advance by calling 440-354-6100.

Details outlining the route designs are available at <https://laketran.com/about-laketran/route-8-public-hearings> along with a community feedback survey for those who cannot attend the public meetings.

The public has until Tuesday, March 24 to provide written comment on the new route to hearings@laketran.com or by mail to Laketran, 555 Lakeshore Blvd., Painesville Twp., OH 44077.

Route options will also be on display for comment and review at the Great Lakes Mall Home & Lifestyle Event on Saturday, March 7, 2020 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Laketran display.

Divorce 101:

Divorce v. Dissolution:
What is the difference?

This article simplistically identifies the main issues in the termination of the marital contract and explains the difference between a divorce and dissolution. The issues in the termination of the marital contract are as follows: (1.) Allocation of Parental Rights and Responsibilities if there are children. The main issues regarding the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities would include who pays child support and how much, companionship time, formerly known as "visitation", who has custody or how is shared parenting, formerly known as "joint custody", to be allocated, who is responsible for health care/ insurance and how will the tax exemption be divided. (2.) Spousal support. Will one party pay the other spousal support and how much and for how long? (3.) Property distribution. How will the marital real and personal assets be divided. (4.) Pension and retirement division, if in existence. And, finally, (5.) Allocation of marital debt. These are the main issues in every divorce and/or dissolution.

The most fundamental difference between a contested divorce and a dissolution and/or uncontested divorce is that in a contested divorce, the parties cannot agree on one or more of the issues; whereas, in dissolution or an uncontested divorce, the parties are in agreement. Dissolutions and uncontested divorces are very cost effective and can be finalized in as little as six weeks from the date of the filing. The cost of the divorce or dissolution will vary on the number of issues in the case. In a dissolution or uncontested (no fighting) divorce the financial cost can be dramatically less than a contested divorce (the parties cannot agree on one or more of the issues) but, most importantly, the emotional cost to both parties and their children, if applicable, is much lower.

An action for divorce- if the parties cannot come to a voluntary agreement- can easily take a year or longer to finalize. There is the dread of runaway attorney fees averaging $250- $300 per hour. In a contested divorce (where the people are actively fighting) there is always the worry (which is justified) that the attorney will quit if you run out of money or the fear of receiving another several thousand dollar bill unexpectedly. The information gathering process referred to as "discovery" can become a costly and stressful nightmare. Discovery is not required with dissolution.

The emotional price of continuous daily resentment, depression, fear and worry can become overbearing and destructive to one's health. Dissolution avoids all of this. That being said; It is very difficult to get two people who are usually not the best of friends to begin with to agree on all issues. All issues must be agreed to for a successful dissolution to occur. This requires compromise. The cardinal rule is that nobody walks away happy. Each party usually feels wronged in some way by the other. Each party usually feels that they could have obtained a better result if they would have just held out longer or been more aggressive. The truth is the law is pretty settled on how property and children are resolved. In most cases, you will not get a better result by engaging in prolonged litigation.

If the parties are unable to come to an agreement regarding all the issues, as is often the case, a divorce must be initiated. I try to resolve as many issues as possible before hand and communicate with the other party or his/her attorney to coordinate the process. It is always best to work together and focus upon resolution of the issues on which the parties agree. The purpose of the attorney is to make the process as minimally painful, and least expensive as possible. Open and honest communication is key. Unfortunately, in many cases, the parties have so much resentment toward each other that they are simply unable to cooperate. This is never in anybody's best interest and can be very damaging to children.

There are certainly ways to minimize the pain and cost of a divorce but it will never be as efficient and emotionally healthy as two parties coming to a voluntary agreement with dissolution. I believe that a dissolution really should be possible in most cases if two factors are present (1.) the parties are mature, sensitive and intelligent and (2.) the matter is approached with a cost versus benefit business analysis, an open mind and sound professional guidance. I know this is easier said than done. But- if accomplished- the financial and emotional rewards (including healing time) reaped are enormous for the parties and children and will be enjoyed for the span of one's entire life.

Ways to Cut Prescription Costs Down to Size

The costs for many prescription medications keep going up every day. Even those who have good insurance coverage are seeing their costs on the upswing. Without insurance, many people find themselves unable to keep up with their prescription costs and must do without.

Fortunately, there are a number of legitimate resources designed to help you cut the cost of your prescriptions down to size. Not every one of these resources will work in every situation, but you may find one or more of these resources that can help you.

“Is this really the best price you can offer?”

Don't be shy about questioning your pharmacist about the cost. Ask him or her if you can save money by paying cash instead of going through your insurance plan. Also, ask your doctor whether there is a generic version of your drug or if he or she can give you free samples or discount.

Use an App to Comparison

Shop

Prescription costs vary widely between pharmacies. Get a quick idea of what your prescription will cost through any of the growing list of apps and websites that provide comparative pricing at pharmacies near you. Examples of these apps and website include GoodRx or RetailMeNot Rx Saver and SingleCare.com to name a few. Their comparative pricing service is provided free of charge. They often provide coupons and discount offers to help lower the final cost of your prescription, too.

Assistance for Life-Saving Medications

The Assistance Fund provides assistance that can make the difference between life and death for some patients. This non-profit helps pay for some medications by footing a significant amount of the out-of-pocket costs — including copayments, coinsurance, deductibles and other health-related expenses — for insured patients. The Assistance Fund tries to approve people for assistance within 24 hours because they know time is of the essence in many cases. You can see a list of diseases that are covered by The Assistance Fund at <https://tafcares.org>.

Check Manufacturer Websites for Rebates

Manufacturers of brand-name drugs often offer rebates or other assistance to get people to try their medications at deep discounts or for free. You will need to visit the drug manufacturer's website to learn whether any coupons, rebates or introductory offers available.

Always talk to your physician if you cannot afford your prescription. He or she may be able to recommend other resources to help you. Skipping your prescriptions is never a good choice.

Each class is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. And runs for 1 to 1 1/2 hours. This year's series will be held in the Community Room in the Painesville Township Offices at 55 Nye Road, Painesville next door to the Fire Station. Topics for March - June are:

• Saturday March 14, 2020 – Nature's Cues a.k.a. Phenology

• Saturday April 4, 2020 – Square Foot Gardening

We will discuss and show the methods used in setting up a garden, creating the soil needed, sectioning off the garden and the types of plants used to make the most of the space available in your yard.

• Saturday May 2, 2020 – Continuous Color Using Perennials

Your garden can be interesting and colorful all year long and one garden can have many looks. Learn to combine many elements into a coherent whole and what you need to have available to be successful.

• Saturday June 6, 2020 – "Bee" Friendly with Natives

Native plants have evolved with our native bees. These plants are not only beautiful but provide multiple ecosystem services. Learn how planting with natives provides benefits to you and our bees.

Safe Dog Handling for Seniors

Owning a pet can contribute to better health and a more active lifestyle. As more seniors become/continue to be pet owners, the benefits of owning a pet dog may come with some unfortunate side effects.

A recent University of Pennsylvania study found emergency room patients 65 and older with injuries from walking leashed dogs increased from 1,671 injuries in 2004 to nearly 4,400 in 2017. Nearly 80 percent of those patients were women, most commonly with hip fractures followed by injuries to the wrist or upper arm.

While some of these incidents can be attributed to the environment (slippery sidewalks etc.) many of the incidents were likely a result of a dog that was not trained to walk on leash. Leash skills are critical for any dog owner, but become increasingly important as the dog-owning population ages and more seniors are enjoying pet ownership.

Things to consider if you are a senior or know a senior considering adding a dog to the household:

- Energy Level: Make sure that your physical condition and lifestyle can accommodate the dog's exercise needs
- Size of the Adult Dog: Large and giant breeds may be too physically demanding for a senior, particularly if the dogs have poor leash skills and manners (jumping.) Large dogs may also prove difficult to transport.
- Training: Can the dog be physically managed while participating in obedience training to improve manners?

We encourage seniors to do a compatibility assessment of a potential pet to assure that the dog can be safely handled at home and in public before committing to the new pet.
