

Jaworski, Anne

Anne Jaworski, 80, of Port Austin, passed away on November 14, 2004, at her home under the loving care of her family and the services of Heartland Hospice. Born in Belleville on November 20, 1923, she was the daughter of Rose (Macholl) and Mietz Greca. She was a 1941 graduate of Monroe High School. She was united in marriage with Ervin A. Jaworski on November 24, 1943 in Bremmerton, Washington. Anne was an active member of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin as well as St. Charles Catholic Church in Newport. She was active in her church and the community, participating in the altar society, the Red Cross disaster services, and election poll work. Anne was also an avid fan of polka music and quilting. A devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, she is survived by her husband, Ervin, of Port Austin; her children, Judy Finnigan and her husband, Norville, of Spokane, Washington, James Jaworski, of Brooking, Oregon, Kay Cogley and her husband, Jack, of Brighton, Dennis Jaworski and his wife, Julie, of Venice, Florida, Alan Jaworski and his wife, Joanne, of Nashville, Tennessee, Michael Jaworski and his wife, Frieda, of Monroe, Jon Jaworski and his wife, Nancy, and Jo Jaworski and her husband, Gary Carone, of Newport; 18 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her son, Paul; her daughter, Mary; three brothers, Al, Donald, and Richard Greca; three sisters, Edith Manor, Rose Koenig, and Eleanor McGill. A Funeral Mass will be conducted at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, November 17, 2004, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin with a luncheon to follow in the parish hall. The Rev. Robert Pare, pastor, and the Rev. Gerald E. Balwinski will co-officiate. A Funeral Mass will also be conducted at the St. Charles Catholic Church in Newport with a luncheon to follow the service. Arrangements at the St. Charles parish are pending at this time. Arrangements are being handled by the Knoblock Funeral Home in Kinde. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Heartland Hospice, the Hospitality House of Saginaw, or the Heartbeat of Monroe.
