

A Practical approach to problem solving in Reproductive Surgery

28-29 November 2017, Southampton

28-29 November 2017, Southampton

Venue BEST WESTERN Chilworth Manor Hotel

Day 1

11.00 Registration and viewing of abstracts (Lunch for Delegates)

12.45 Presidents Address: Role of the International Society for Reproductive Surgery and Fallopian Tube – Ertan Saridogan

13.00-15.00 Session 1

13.00-13.40 Debate: Laparoscopy and dye test is no longer required as part of infertility investigation when pelvic ultrasound examination is normal

For: Ying Cheong 15 minutes

Against: Stephan Gordts 15 minutes

Response and discussion 10 minutes

13.40-14.00 Tubal patency testing for infertility

Kamal Ojha

14.00-14.20 The role of imaging before and during fertility promoting surgery

Kanna Jayaprakasan

14.20-14.30 Discussion

14.30-15.00 Case discussions (Infertility investigations)

Discussants: Ying Cheong, Stephan Gordts, Kanna Jayaprakasan and Kamal Ojha

15.00-15.30 Coffee break

15.30-17.30 Session 2

15.30-16.10 Debate: There is no place for surgery for endometriosis to improve fertility in the era of ART

For: UK Adam Moors, UK, 15 minutes

Against: Michelle Nisolle Belgium 15 minutes

Response and discussion 10 minutes

16.10-16.30 When do I remove intramural/subserosal fibroids to improve fertility or fertility treatment outcome?

Antoine Watrelot, France

16.30-16.50 Submucosal fibroids: Is the hysteroscopic approach always the best?

Ertan Saridogan

16.50-17.00 Discussion

17.00-17.30 Case discussions (Endometriosis and fibroids)

Discussants: Ying Cheong, Sameer Umranikar,

Conference Drinks reception and Dinner : 19:00 – 21.30

Day 2

0800 – 0900 Viewing of Abstracts

08.15 – 8.45 Meet the Experts – please book in advance limited spaces available –
Hysteroscopy, Hycosy and Fertiloscopy

09.00-11.00 Session 3

09.00-09.40 Debate: Uterine septum should always be treated in infertile women and women undergoing ART

For: Grigoris Grimbizis 15 minutes

Against: tbc 15 minutes

Response and discussion 10 minutes

09.40.10.00 Intrauterine adhesions: What's New? TC Li, Hong Kong

10.00-10.20 Caesarean section scar defects in infertile women: do they really matter?

Olivier Donnez

10.20-10.30 Discussion

10.30-11.00 Case discussions

Discussants: Kanna Jayaprakasan, TC Li, Grigoris Grimbizis

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-13.00 Session 4

Moderator or Chair : Gedis Grudzinskas and Nick Mackelon

11.30-11.50 Ovarian tissue transplant updates of the current status and the surgical Technique - Erik Ernst Denmark

11.50-12.10 Hormone replacement with ovarian tissue transplant the future

Claus Yding Andersen, Denmark

12.10-12.30 How to set up a cryo-preservation service

Kirsten Schmidt, Denmark

12.30-12.40 Discussion (Ovarian cryopreservation)

12.4.10-13.00 Case discussions (Fertility preservation)

Discussants: Erik Ernst / Kirsten Schmidt /Claus Yding Andersen/ Gedis Grudzinskas

13.00-13.45 Lunch – Viewing of Abstracts

13.45 – 14.00 Best three abstract presentations.

14.00-16.00 Session 5

14.00-14.40 Debate: Laparoscopic clipping instead of removal of hydrosalpinges should be preferred prior to ART

For: 15 minutes Annika Strandell, Sweden

Against: 15 minutes Stephan Gordts, Belgium

Responses and discussion 10 minutes

14.40-15.00 The case for Essure Hysteroscopic sterilisation for hydrosalpinges prior to ART: how safe is it ?

Speaker - Antoine Watrelot, France

15.00-15.20 Endometrial biopsy with or without hysteroscopy prior to ART: Does it really help?

Mostafa Metwally. UK

15.20-15.30 Discussion

15.30-16.00 Case discussions

Discussants: tbc

16.00 - 1620 Closing remarks – Overview – Place of Reproductive Surgery and intraoperative imaging in managing women seeking fertility treatment TC Li/Kamal Ojha

To book a place and registration details please visit our website for more details www.isrsft.org