Mass of Remembrance

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

A Mass remembering those who have passed away from our Parish unit in the past year will be celebrated on Tuesday, November 10th at 7:00pm. The Book of the Dead is usually displayed in each of our churches throughout the month of November and parishioners are able to enter the names of their loved ones, but this year, we must do things a little differently. If you wish to have the name of your loved one entered into the book, please call the office at 857-4223 and we will enter the name into the book. The names previously written in the Book of the Dead remain listed from year to year and continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. Preference for attendance at this Mass will be given to families of deceased loved ones. Thank you for your understanding.

The 2020-2021 Missals are currently available at the back of the church or at the Rectory Office at a cost of $5.00 each. You can purchase one by dropping by the office during regular office hours.

Due to Covid 19 Protocols: The Catholic Women's League will set out baskets for our annual mitten collection from November 8th to November 22nd. The mittens will then be distributed to local school children. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Transformed Through Eucharist

What happens during the Eucharist? How important is Eucharist to you? Why are you preparing your child to make their First Communion?

As parents of children preparing to receive First Eucharist in the spring of 2021 at any parish within the English sector, you are asked to attend this session taking place on Thursday, November 19th at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview.

COVID-19 physical distancing regulations will be observed and wearing of masks is mandatory. Because of the pandemic, we are unable to provide childcare.

No tea, coffee or snacks will be provided; however, participants are welcome to bring their own.

Registration of children receiving the sacrament will take place from 6:15 – 6:30 p.m. At 6:30 facilitators Karen LeBlanc and Ellen Bennett will offer an overview of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and talk about how, through the Eucharist, the bread and wine and the assembly are transformed again into the Body of Christ. Those children who have not been registered by 6:30 will have to be registered following the session.

Please contact Ellen or your parish catechetical coordinator to confirm your attendance. Also note that the session from 6:30 – 8:30 is open to anyone interested in attending, but they are asked to contact Ellen to register.

Participants are asked to arrive no later than 6:00 p.m. to provide time to welcome everyone safely.

The End is Nigh: Exploring the Book of Revelations

Join us for this virtual session taking place on Tuesday evening, November 24th with facilitators Dr. Andrew Wilson and Dr. Fiona Black. More details and registration information will follow. For now, mark your calendars.

Medical Assistance in Dying

On October 20th, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops released a statement expressing their opposition to the re-tabling of Bill C-7, an act to amend the Criminal Code around medical assistance in dying re-introduced by the federal government on October 5, 2020. This statement is in addition to the joint ecumenical and interfaith statement released on 14 October 2020 entitled: “We Can and Must do Much Better – Religious Leaders in Canada denounce Bill C-7, ‘An Act to amend the Criminal Code \(medical assistance in dying\)’”.

As the legislation introduced this month remains unchanged from that which was tabled on 24 February 2020, the Bishops of Canada once again express their serious concerns regarding Bill C-7 and call upon all Canadians to express their opposition to the Bill. As said in the statement: “The proposed legislation of Bill C-7 remains deeply flawed, unjust, and morally pernicious. The Bishops of Canada call on Catholics and all people of good will to make their voices heard in opposition to the Bill. Similarly, all Canadian legislators should recall that no law that permits the taking of innocent human life can ever be morally justified. Such a law would always violate the intrinsic dignity of the human person.” This statement can be found at the following link: <https://www.cccb.ca/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/CCCB-statement-on-Bill-C-7-20-October-2020-EN.pdf>

Exploring our Faith

Hear, Ye! Hear, Ye!

"Bad habits are like a comfortable bed, easy to get into, but hard to get out of." Isn't that true? Bad habits abound in all of our lives and are not just the downfall of gambling-chain-smoking-foul-mouthed nuns! As Catholics we have always been susceptible to having bad habits encroach upon the way we celebrate Eucharist. And now with the restrictions and protocols thrust upon us during this pandemic time, it is even easier for us to slip into bad liturgical practices. For the sake of everybody's safety, we have had to refrain from singing, refrain from handshaking, refrain from personally saying "Amen" while receiving communion, refrain from sitting close to the other members of the Body of Christ, etc. None of these makes for good liturgy, and all of them can become habit forming in a detrimental way.

One of the "bad" habits that has haunted us, long before COVID-19 hit, concerns the attentiveness or lack of attentiveness we give to the proclamation of God's Word, the readings. Every week I still see some people in the pews who have their noses in their personal missals (St. Joseph Missal or Living with Christ) following along, word for word, while the lector is proclaiming the reading. What the Church teaches is that this is a "proclamation" of God's word; it was never meant to be multiple, simultaneous readings of God's word. I suspect personal missals were in vogue during the time when Eucharist was celebrated in Latin. Not understanding Latin, people needed a participation aid, a booklet that had the Latin words in the left-hand column and the translation in English (or French) next to it in the right-hand column. This served a purpose given the circumstances. This is no longer the case, though, and has not been the case since March 7, 1965. That was the date when the first Mass was celebrated in the vernacular (the language of the people rather than Latin).

There are two main reasons why we do not encourage people to follow along the Mass privately. Firstly, we are at public prayer; this is not a time for me and my private devotions (some people are even praying the rosary during mass!) nor for private reading. Nothing during liturgy, the public prayer of the Church, should draw us into our own personal space. Public prayer should draw us outward toward God, toward our brothers and sisters assembled in faith, and toward the world. The second reason we do not encourage people to follow along doing private readings during mass is because the Scripture readings are meant to be proclaimed not simply read. The Church teaches that when the Word of God is proclaimed, it is God speaking to us. Our attention, therefore, should be focused on the one proclaiming for he or she is not speaking their own words but God's. Before newspapers, television, radio, personal computers, and cell phones, the way people received the news of the day was through a proclamation. People had to focus their attention on the proclaimer, the town crier, if they wanted to get the news. If we want to receive the Living Word of God, a Word that has the power to change our lives, we too need to focus our attention on the proclaimer, the lector. If our lectors are poor proclaimers, then we need to train them to become better. As for the rest of us, the hearers of God's word, we can prepare our hearts and minds ahead of time by reading over the Scripture readings listed in the parish bulletin.

(Fr. Phil)
