

GIVR: The United Nations

- Created following WWII
- Done to make sure further aggression would not occur
- Wanted to provide a means of solving international problems

Sample Questions

1. The United Nations was created primarily to
- (1) prosecute persons accused of war crimes
 - (2) contain the spread of communism
 - (3) channel relief aid to war-torn nations
 - (4) provide a means of solving international problems

The Meeting Will Now Come to Order

Source: Daniel Fitzpatrick, St. Louis Post-Dispatch (adapted)

2. This cartoon raises the question as to whether the United Nations is able to
- (1) administer former colonial areas
 - (2) deliver aid to people in need
 - (3) separate political issues from economic issues
 - (4) unite opposing forces and differing ideologies