If you are present at a meeting and you have a DPI then you must:

(4)

(5) Dispensations

You may take part in the discussion of and vote on a matter in which you have been granted a dispensation.

Sensitive information

13. (1) An interest will be a sensitive interest if the 2 following conditions apply:
- a) that you have an interest (whether or not a DPI); and
 - b) the nature of the interest is such that you and the Monitoring Officer consider that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to you or a person connected to you being subject to violence or intimidation.
- (2) Where it is decided that an interest is a “sensitive interest” it will be excluded from published versions of the register. The Monitoring Officer may state on the register that the member has an interest the details of which are excluded under this section.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 30 of the Localism Act 2011 provides that a member or co-opted member of a relevant authority as defined in section 27(6) of the Localism Act 2011, on taking office and in the circumstances set out in section 31, must notify the authority's monitoring officer of any disclosable pecuniary interest which that person has at the time of notification. These Regulations specify what is a pecuniary interest. Section 30(3) of the Act sets out the circumstances in which such an interest is a disclosable interest.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for these Regulations as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.

EXAMPLES OF BULLYING AND HARASSMENT

Bullying and harassment may include:

- physical contact ranging from touching to assault
- verbal and written comments through jokes, offensive language, personal comments about appearance, size, clothing etc
- innuendo, gossip and letters etc.
- malicious rumours and allegations, including fabricating complaints from clients and other members of staff.
- open aggression, threats, shouting, abuse and obscenities, persistent negative attacks.
- constant humiliation, criticism and ridicule, belittling efforts and undervaluing contribution
- trolling behaviour.

Harassment is unwanted conduct on the grounds of any protected characteristic as defined by the Equality Act 2010, political or Trade Union affiliation, or take the form of victimisation, that:

- has the purpose of violating a person's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that person; or
- is reasonably considered by that person to have the effect of violating his/her dignity or of creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for him/her, even if this effect was not intended by the person responsible for the conduct.

This is not exhaustive.

GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

1. Minor gifts and hospitality are sometimes part of the normal courtesies of life: a resident may offer a modest gift as a token of appreciation and sometimes simple items such as diaries and pens are distributed as advertising matter. In dealing with a matter in your ward you may be offered a cup of tea or light refreshments.
2. As a guideline, any gift or hospitality with a value of £15 or more is highly unlikely to be viewed as a 'token'. You must consider whether it is appropriate to accept even token gifts, especially where you are dealing with regulatory or procurement matters when it would usually be inappropriate to receive any gift from involved parties. In case of doubt you should consult the Monitoring Officer.
3. Offers of hospitality, even if seemingly minor in nature, must be treated with particular caution as they can leave individuals and the Council open to allegations of impropriety. The timing of offers of hospitality, for example in relation to the award of contracts, granting of applications or other decisions, should be considered equally to the generosity of the hospitality offered. Accepting hospitality must be justified in the public interest, for example when there is a genuine need to represent the Council.
4. All offers and receipt of gifts and hospitality with a value of £15 or higher must be reported to the Monitoring Officer who will ensure it is recorded.
