Treasurer's Report

Mary had no treasurer's report. The balance is the same as last month, since she did not receive any additional information from the Association. The current balance is $5303.80.

Membership

At the present time, we have 110 paid members. Pete will send out reminder letter to members along with the directory. There was a short discussion on whether a husband and wife who both worked for the College should pay a double fee for dues each year. Marilyn asked that we have some more brochures printed. Marie said they should be available at informational workshops for anyone near retirement.

Newsletter

It was recently send out. Bob suggested asking if we could include a small insert in the "Word" a one or two line spot for information on RASCC. Bob reiterated that people enjoy seeing pictures of events and trips. A Constitutional Convention article will be included in the next newsletter at the end of the summer. Jim suggested that all members who help to organize trips or programs should have their name added to the Activities Committee members.

Webmaster

Pete said everything is the same and he welcomes any new suggestions.

RASCC Banner

Bud mentioned that the RASCC banner will ship on May 11th. The banner cost was $119.40 and it measures 5' x 3'. Marilyn suggested that we should hang it up at the Spring Luncheon.

New Business

Bob said we need a name for our newsletter. He asked if we could perhaps have a contest for all members to suggest a name. Also to award a prize for the name selected.

Marie Hanna suggested Villa Sorrento for our Holiday Party this year. She distributed the choices for the menu and everyone was in favor. She will be contacting them to confirm the date (Wed., December 6), 12 noon to 3 p.m. Cost $40.00 per person.

Regina spoke about the Spring Luncheon at the Cull House in Sayville. It will be Tues., June 6th. There will possibly be a guest speaker. The cost is $35.00 per person. The checks are sent to Pete and he currently has 19 people paid.

Marilyn spoke about her annual picnic, Garden Party, on her deck. The date is Tuesday, August 10th at 2 p.m. Everyone is asked to wear something checkered. She will need to know who can come by August 4th. Pete will send out a "hold the date" email.
