21 MAY 2018 – The Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver together with the Commission on Filipinos Overseas (CFO) successfully held a consultation meeting with the Filipino community in Vancouver on 17 May 2018 as part of the Ugnayan sa Canada series of events. CFO Executive Director Astravel Pimentel-Naik led the CFO delegation, together with folk singer-composer and musical artist, Mr. Joey Ayala.

Executive Director Pimentel-Naik met with leaders and members of various Filipino-Canadian associations at the Universal Learning Institute in Vancouver. The event provided the venue for CFO to update the audience on the various initiatives, programs and services of CFO and the PHL government. The Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver together with Philippine Overseas Labor Office (POLO) were also on hand to address queries pertaining to overseas Filipino workers in Canada. (END)
