National Panhellenic Conference Recognizes Alumnae Associations

Alumnae Panhellenics from 79 communities recognized for their work to advance the sorority experience

INDIANAPOLIS – National Panhellenic Conference (NPC), one of the largest advocacy organizations for women, is proud to announce that 50 Alumnae Panhellenic Associations are being recognized with citations of merit and 43 are being recognized with programming excellence awards.

An Alumnae Panhellenic is a community-based organization composed of members from NPC's 26 member organizations. The purpose of these organizations is to inform sorority women of current trends, promote the sorority experience, improve the lifelong Panhellenic image and stimulate a continuing interest in related affairs.

NPC has acknowledged Alumnae Panhellenics for their devotion to meet specific criteria and expectations. The two award categories are:

- Citation of Merit: Recognizes achievement by active Alumnae Panhellenics in areas of panhellenic spirit, undergraduate relations and recruitment information
- Programming Excellence: Recognizes achievement by active Alumnae Panhellenics that have outstanding activities and events involving their membership, such as special events, sisterhood programming, fundraisers, philanthropy activities and scholarship programming

"Alumnae Panhellenics play a vital role in providing sorority women with opportunities to collaborate, no matter the badge worn, for a lifetime," said Panhellenics Chairman Frances Mitchelson. "These award recipients model the values of lifelong friendship and service in their communities and for collegiate women on nearby campuses."
