Hi Ladies,

First let me thank Haylee Lane for a job well done at November's Arts and Crafts Auction. She made everything look very easy, but it's obvious that with over 140 items to collect ahead of time, prepare, tag and then transport and display at the luncheon venue, a tremendous amount of time and effort went into the event. Be sure to thank Haylee yourselves for her hard work. In addition, a great big thank you to those of you who contributed your talents, time, money and energy which helped make the day such a success. I was delighted to hear that our purchases added up to $995. Way to go team!

Thanks too to those of you who attended Game Day. Hope you had a good day with good friends. From the pictures in this Chatter issue, you'll see that everyone had fun. Brenda and I are working on next year's date, so stay tuned.

As I mentioned at the November luncheon, our attendance at the luncheons is lower than in past years. Do you know why? If you do, or if you have any suggestions as to how we can increase our luncheon attendance, please call me so we can discuss this.

December our holiday luncheon is at Timacuan Golf and Country Club, one of our favorite venues. I'm hoping to see you there. The food is terrific, and the service is always great. Remember, the December luncheon is a week earlier than usual so you need to have your reservations called in no later than December 6.

Helen Hoppmann has graciously offered to chair the work on the proposed cookbook which we are hoping to publish in the Spring. Several ladies have expressed interest already, so start looking for your favorite recipes to submit now.

While we in Florida are still wearing sleeveless tops and shorts, they had four inches of snow in my son's back yard. My granddaughter who is a cheerleader at Oviedo High School went up to snowy New York because her cheerleading team was invited to march in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade. You can bet we were glued to the TV that day.

All of this brings me to the end of this month's column. I hope you had a happy turkey day and are ready for all the decorations, holiday cards and joy that December brings.

See you at the December luncheon.

Joan

Meet Our Members

Diane Antaya was born in Flushing, NY but moved to Miami when she was five weeks old after her father was transferred to Florida for his job with Pan American World Airways. Diane attended Coral Gables High School and graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in Education. For ten years, she taught students from third grade to seventh grade in Marietta, GA, a suburb of Atlanta. She grew weary of working hard with little to show for it, and decided to become a sales rep/sales manager for the Colgate-Palmolive Company in Orlando.

After getting a promotion, Diane was transferred back to Atlanta for five years. Then she decided to work in the field of college textbook publishing sales with Pearson Education and came back to Orlando for a second time for 21 years. Shortly after retiring, her husband of 31 years passed away, and she began the journey of living alone with her two Yorkies, Luna and Cocoa. This led her to the Newcomers club, which she joined in June 2018. In recent years, Diane developed an interest in decorating and has found a sense of accomplishment in using her creativity. She also enjoys her coloring books which she uses as a meditation tool, and taking beach vacations. In the future, she hopes to live in a beach town in Florida.

Kathleen McCabe, also known as "Kathy," was born in Philadelphia, but moved to Levittown, PA as a young child. She spent 63 years in Bucks County, PA, where she attended Bishop Conwell High School and received a business degree from Bucks County Community College.

She worked for Pathmark (a supermarket chain) for 35 years as a bookkeeper. In 2014, Kathy moved to Central Florida in order to be closer to family after her husband passed away. She lives in Oviedo and has four grandchildren who all live in this area.

Kathy joined Newcomers in August 2014 after hearing about the club from member Shirley McMenamin. She has played Bunko with Newcomers and attends shows at the Winter Park Playhouse. In her leisure time, she also enjoys reading, traveling, playing games, and volunteering. One of her goals is to visit all the resort towns in Florida. She hopes to make it to the Panhandle soon!

We are looking for someone to take over the Meet Our Members column from Ronnie Telzer, who has done it for years. Please call Ronnie for more information.

Hello, Friends,
 It's hard for me to believe that Christmas is around the corner. As I look out my window, the scenery seems to be the same as it was at Easter! A trip to Hobby Lobby quickly brings me back to reality!
 It's time that I ask you to keep our Christmas collection in mind as you budget your holiday giving. Many organizations are soliciting at this time of year, which makes it more challenging to give Newcomers a monetary donation. I'd like to remind you that this year's worthy organization is the Outreach Rescue Mission in Sanford, which is the only service in Seminole county providing shelter for homeless women and their children, and, in some cases, their husbands. I will be collecting donations again at the December luncheon and deliver a check in time for them to provide a meaningful Christmas to their residents.
 Early in November, Joan Bové and Brenda Jones joined me for a trip to Eastwood to deliver an SUV full of applesauce and paper products to Russell Home for Atypical Children and Adults. As usual, we had to get maintenance to bring a small trailer to load all of your generous donations! We also gave them a check for $350 from Newcomers.
 Also, in this trip, we stopped at Ronald McDonald House to drop off two very large bags of tabs. We then stopped for lunch at the Peach Valley Cafe for a nice meal.
 I know this is long, but our club's outreach is very busy, thanks to the generosity and kindness of all of you, the members. I thank you for keeping the spirit of the upcoming giving season alive.
 Sincerely,
 Barb
