Austin Interpretation Version

Jesus was crucified again by the rejection of the Word of God. The religious institutions of the day had misrepresented God. God's people would be persecuted as others (especially France) would "fall away" from God's truth. Yet all the world realized the great peril in rejecting the Bible. After three and a half years, the Bible was reinstated in France. New life was given to it and it was raised up before the nations of the world.

Austin Interpretation Version: Truth for Today

Today many people are led astray by religious institutions. Christ is crucified again by many who reject Him and His Word. God's people suffer, as well as the nations which turn away from Bible truth. Soon though God's Word will be exalted above all earthly powers.
