

English Teacher

Oxford School is currently seeking an experienced High School English Teacher to fill a full-time position at a 7-12 private and independent school. We are a small private high school that has predominantly Chinese students, but also have students from Japan, Korea, Vietnam, Cambodia, and Taiwan. We have been operating and helping international students obtain their dreams of higher education in the United States for over 20 years. We are ESL focused and provide a safe and comfortable learning environment. Most of our students graduate and go on to UC, CSU, private schools, and community colleges. We provide a home away from home with caring teachers and administrators and a great education. Are you a fit for our Oxford family?

Candidates should hold a Bachelor's or Master's degree in English Language or Literature or a related field and have at least 1-3 years of secondary teaching experience. No credential okay.

Responsibilities of the English Teacher

- Develop and organize an English language and literature curriculum
- Establish standards of student performance which can be quantitatively and qualitatively evaluated
- Develop and implement lesson plans and instructional materials
- Develop knowledge and skills essential to effectively teach students in the grade assigned
- Promote students' critical and creative thinking and analysis
- Plan and conduct activities for a balanced program of instruction, demonstration, and work time that provides students with opportunities to observe, question, and investigate
- Be familiar with 21st Century Skills, PBL, and SIOP

Requirements of the English Teacher

- Bachelor's degree in English Language or Literature or related field, Master's degree preferred
- Minimum 1-3 years of teaching experience at the 7-12 grade level
- Interest to contribute to school community outside of the classroom as an athletic coach, student adviser, student club leader, or otherwise preferred
- Must be authorized to work in the U.S.

Job Type: Full-time

Salary: 30-35k depending on experience.

Part-time ELD Teacher: Summer

Oxford School is looking for part-time summer instruction as an ELD Teacher. We are looking for someone with teaching experience preferably with English Language Learners.

We are a small private high school that has predominantly Chinese students, but also have students from Japan, Korea, Vietnam, Cambodia, and Taiwan. We have been operating and helping international students obtain their dreams of higher education in the United States for over 20 years. We are ESL focused and provide a safe and comfortable learning environment. All of our students graduate and go on to UC, CSU, private schools, and community colleges. We provide a home away from home with caring teachers and administrators and a great education.

You will teach 3 classes a day for 55 minutes from 9:00am-12:00pm Monday through Friday. July 2-27 and July 30-August 26

There may be a possibility of teaching an English 100 or 200 class in the afternoons from 12:30-3:30. July 2-27 and July 30-August 26

These students will be coming from China and will be at different levels of English. It's important to make it fun and educational. You will have the freedom to create your own curriculum.

Responsibilities of the ELD Teacher:

- Develop and organize an English language and literature curriculum
- Establish standards of student performance which can be quantitatively and qualitatively evaluated
- Develop and implement lesson plans and instructional materials
- Develop knowledge and skills essential to effectively teach students in the grade assigned
- Promote students' critical and creative thinking and analysis
- Plan and conduct activities for a balanced program of instruction, demonstration, and work time that provides students with opportunities to observe, question, and investigate
- Be familiar with 21st Century Skills, PBL, and SIOP