Louise's Place Champion in Restaurant Chili Cook Off

By Kitty Mayo

The Two Harbors Winter Frolic of 2019 has once again played a role in upping the chili-game on the north shore with the Restaurant Chili Cook Off hosted by Harbor Insurance and the Lake Bank.

This year's first place winner was Louise's Place, owned by Marsha and Dan Snowdon. Last year's first-place chili went to Kamloops Restaurant and Louise's had taken second place for the previous three years.

"We even called it 'Second Place Chili' in our advertising, and then this year it got first," said Dan, with a chuckle, adding, "Living in Texas so long (8 years), you get a good idea of what good chili tastes like."

Dan's success came from making his winning entry with plenty of dried ancho chiles and generous chunks of beef, while walking the delicate line of finding the right amount of heat.

The contest took place at the Two Harbors Curling Club where part of the Winter Frolic was the ever-popular curling contest between the city of Two Harbors and Lake County.

This year city officials took the title back from county-elected officials in a rousing contest that results in both teams make a charitable contribution to an area non-profit, with the winner choosing where the donation goes.
