Someone finally gets it, but unfortunately, for our children it is not Hampton School Board. We have students on the verge of losing scholarships because Hampton can't adequately staff our children's classrooms. Substitutes are scarce and "teachers" are not qualified for the assigned course.

This was a parent's comment at the March 13 school board meeting - "No disrespect to you Dr. Smith I know you're very very busy. When I brought it to your attention, you knew the literature very very well. Miss Hardy's an English teacher. I can't believe that you got all these higher education people can't give up an hour and 40 minutes every other day to teach this one class. But we can have two principals four assistant principals okay in a lunch room for 2 and 1/2 hours looking over kids eating making sure that there's not a fight. There's money for that. Something needs to be done."

How long have I been saying the same thing? Why are classrooms literally going unstaffed or inadequately staffed when administrators with current teaching licenses are available? Why...because - "NOBODY CARES"!
