PUBLIC COMMENT

Public comment opened at 7:03. Resident mentioned that the drinking fountain is spraying straight up and needs to be looked at. There was an offer to pay for the Stalwart Cemetery sign. Jim Crawford will follow up with the individual in the summer.

CORRESPONDENCE

Hillary shared the statement received from the EUPConnect Collaborative. This collaborative will help to support infrastructure throughout the county to provide internet access to more residents.

OLD BUSINESS

Township Audit – Hillary reached out to neighboring townships to inquire about their auditing companies. Our current auditor Gillette, Halvorsen and Leonhardt is an aging company that is transitioning into retirement so it is a good time to explore what other options are available for township auditing needs. Several townships in our area utilize Gabridge out of Grand Rapids are very happy with their service. Hillary will reach out for more information and a quote for service.
