Greetings Longhorn Exhibitors!

Thank you for your continued support of the North Texas Longhorn Breeder Association! As you may know, the annual Holiday Extravaganza allocates 75% profits to the NTLBA Senior Scholarship fund. In the past, the Wise County Sherriff's Posse allowed the NTLBA to lease the Posse grounds at no charge. The grounds have changed ownership. While the board is disappointed in the price increase, it prompted us to look to other locations for the show.

Thank you for bearing with us in the crowded barns here in Decatur. If you'll continue your gracious support, we promise more room, improved show grounds and an even more exciting show beginning in 2020!

We look forward to seeing you all in December.

Dr. Justin Sabio

NTLBA President

Dear Santa,

All I want for Christmas is a Longhorn Steer!

I've been very good this year. Here's a little about my current Registered Texas Longhorn program.....This is my plan for my new longhorn steer....

Sarah Danley has donated 5 halter-broke animals to the NTLBA for donations. Letters will be given to Sarah with all contestants' names blacked out. She will choose a winner based on the content of the letter. Winner names will be revealed Saturday, December 7th at Holiday Extravaganza during the banquet.

Rules for the "Dear Santa Steer" contest:

- 1) 4 winners will be chosen, one from each age division (Junior/Intermediate/Teen/Senior).
Must be member of TLBT
- 2) Letters to Santa are due by 11/20/19 and should be sent with Holiday Extravaganza entries
- 3) Steer will be signed over to the winner at the show. Animals are halter-broke and have placed well in their respective classes. There are no other requirements once the transfer occurs
