

[Jesus] said to them..., "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."
And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the holy Spirit."

JOHN 20:21-22

Freed by the Spirit

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Fear can be a most powerful imprisoning force. Like the apostles who locked themselves behind closed doors after the resurrection for fear of the local leaders, there are times when our own fears lock us out of the future and into our past.

We find ourselves choosing not to be generous for fear that if we are, we will find ourselves empty-handed with no one to care for us because all of our resources have been used up. And so, because of our fear, we lock ourselves into our own selfishness. At other times, we hesitate to be kind for fear that our care will be misconstrued or, worse, will be taken advantage of and abused. And so, for fear of continual demands upon our kindness, we lock ourselves into indifference. At other times, we find ourselves too cautious to speak out in the face of injustice because of a misguided respect for "someone else's business" or because we are afraid anger or rejection will come down upon us. So, we lock ourselves into silence.

It is always the Spirit, however, that enables us to unlock those doors once locked by our fear. While that new power enables us to venture into a sometimes-shattering world, it does not promise we won't be shattered in the process. All that Jesus promised is that the Spirit would bring us peace. Such peace happens to us whenever we choose not to succumb to our fears. It is indeed a new creation taking place in us, even now.

Reflect

Has fear ever paralyzed you, keeping you from doing good?

Dear Padre,

I am a practicing Catholic and I don't remember being confirmed. Is it too late for me to be confirmed?

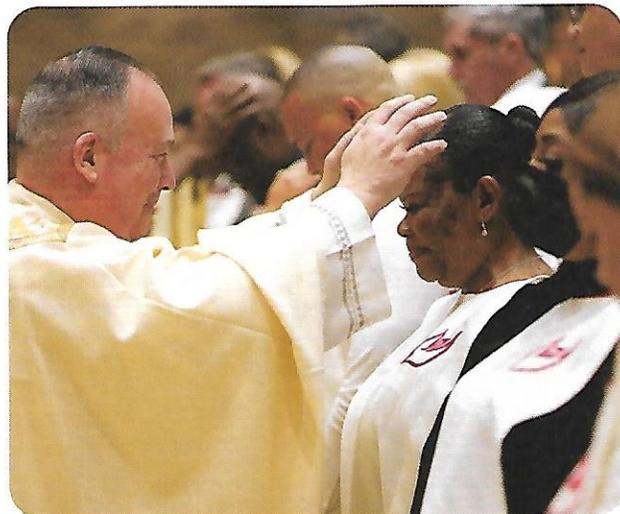

The sacrament of confirmation usually happens when a person is older, and therefore you would likely remember the occasion. It could be that you were not confirmed. You can check with the parish you lived in during your school years to be sure. They keep records of confirmations done in the parish.

Confirmation is the final sacrament of initiation. Baptism ushers us into our life with God by giving us new life. Confirmation seals us with the spirit so we can follow Jesus and live out our particular vocation. And the Eucharist gives us strength for the journey and keeps us in union with God.

If you discover you have not been confirmed or if you can't find out for certain, talk with your pastor. You would not be the first adult seeking confirmation. Your pastor can tell you how your diocese handles confirmation for adults. There might be a program of adult instruction for confirmation to ensure you understand the sacrament and the teachings of the Church.

Today is Pentecost, the day when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit into the lives of the apostles. The Spirit gave them strength for what they had to do. The Spirit can do the same for you.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

On the day of Pentecost, Jesus' disciples were still disoriented and fearful. They did not yet have the courage to go out in the open. We too, at times, prefer to remain within the protective walls of our surroundings. But the Lord...sends upon us the Holy Spirit who envelops us and overpowers all our hesitations.

News from Nigeria

Father Ernest emailed on Wednesday morning to say he arrived safely to Nigeria. He is glad to see his family and friends after a long time!

Pentecost Sunday

Today we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit, fulfilling the promises Jesus made to his disciples before he ascended to the Father. We ourselves were filled with the Holy Spirit at our baptism, along with the gifts the Holy Spirit bestowed upon us: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. Drawn here together by the Holy Spirit, we recall the moment when the first disciples received the power that allowed them to carry out the mission Jesus left them. May the Holy Spirit energize us on the Christian mission as well.

Question of the Week

What gifts of the Holy Spirit do I recognize in myself? How can I use these gifts to bring Christ's peace and mercy to others?

Congratulations and Welcome!

Father was very busy last weekend! He also had three baptisms! We want to congratulate and welcome into our parish family Laila Vandillen, daughter of Zachary & Gina Vandillen (new to our parish family), and Levi & Madeline Schroeder, children of Tim & Kim (Sparks) Schroeder also of our parish.

Here is an update on the Pick-A-Prize drawings. Nicole Hines was the winner of the May 1st drawing for Pick-A-Prize and chose the $250.00 cash prize and $250.00 worth of lottery tickets. Thank you to all those who participated in the fun fundraiser.

Immaculate Conception School News

The 2023 ICS Self Study was a success!

The Visiting Team found in the school community a spirit of family atmosphere, polite students, and dedicated teachers, staff, and students. We enjoyed a warm welcoming from the time we checked into our hotel, through the delicious meals, and the smooth process of completing our report.

The Visiting Team noted that the school improvement process done by the school was thorough and thoughtful. The schools report reflected professionalism, quality, and is a beautiful representation of all that is Immaculate Conception School.

The Visiting Team observed classes, interviewed individuals, reviewed documents, and watched daily procedures. Throughout this process the team was able to get a glimpse of the culture, the people, and the faith that was so evident throughout the school community.

The Action Plan for areas of improvement has been sent to the Diocese for our accreditation. Over the next 5 years, ICS will take the recommended areas of improvement and implement them within our school.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

1 Corinthians 12:4-7

Through the power of the Holy Spirit we are each given unique gifts and the guidance to use those gifts to build up the Body of Christ to accomplish the particular mission entrusted to us.

Some Words from the 2023 Immaculate Conception School 8th Graders

Hi, my name is Owen Merz, and I have been attending ICS for nine years now. I have enjoyed learning in smaller classes because it's more convenient and the teachers always helped me thoroughly. I really enjoyed learning about people and presenting during the Wax Museum nights. Then there's the field trips. I've loved learning about all of the great things. For example, The Magic House was fun and educational. On our local field trip last year, I learned how to screen print a shirt at 1st Place Printing. We went to the Capitol this year and I learned a lot about the history of the building and the State of Missouri.

The teachers have always been the best, for example, Ms. Schroeder with my Mom as an assistant in first and second grades were two of the best years I've had here. I also want to mention Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Bergmann for many good years in school. I always loved tea time and Weekend Share. I also liked being given special responsibilities such as answering the classroom phone, operating the lights and door, and taking care of our cafeteria. I would like to thank my classmates, Carl and Emersyn for sticking with me since the start.

I want to personally thank Mrs. Eileen Lotton for being my Prayer Partner for the last six years and for the epic cards! Thank you to the parishioners for being a part of and for funding my school that I have loved dearly these last nine years. Father Ernest, thank you for being our priest and role model and for your great homilies. Mom and Dad, thank you for choosing to send me to ICS to get an "Education Through Faith" and getting me to school, early or late. Thank you all for taking your time to listen to my speech. Have a great day.

Hello, my name is Emersyn Schroeder and I have been attending Immaculate Conception School for nine years. My favorite things that I've done at ICS are participating in all of the Catholic School Week activities, going out to the prayer garden, and going on fun field trips. I have enjoyed our "Weekend Share" time and accidentally falling asleep in the bean bags any chance I could get.

Thank you Mom and Dad for sending me to this school and allowing me to get a Catholic education. I have learned a lot about my Catholic faith and was confirmed this year. Thank you parishioners for all the support you have given our school. Thank you, Grandma (Arlene Schroeder), for being my Prayer Partner for multiple years and bringing me Subway for lunch. Thank you Father for being our priest and leading our school Masses. Thank you, Mrs. Bergmann and Mrs. Smith, you have made me into the person I am today. Thank you, Mrs. Bergmann, for always letting it be so easy to get you off topic and for sharing the cheese and tea with us! Thank you, Mrs. Smith, for taking pictures and sharing them with me, even though you always catch me at my worst! Thank you, Ms. Schroeder, for being my principal and leading our school. Thank you to my two classmates who have stuck by my side for nine years. I have learned many things from this school and parish that I will cherish for the rest of my life. Thank you.

Hello, my name is Carl Smith, and I have been at ICS for nine years. I have enjoyed Grandparents Day each year and all the field trips that we went on. One of my favorite parts in class was in fifth grade when we did our science fair. I'm pretty sure everyone liked my homemade catapults. I learned a lot about the Catholic faith as well as every other subject.

I would like to thank my mom, dad, and my grandparents for making sure that I attended ICS. Thank you, parishioners, for supporting our school and attending this Mass. Thank you, Mrs. Aggie Baldetti, for being my Prayer Partner for my entire time here and for all the gifts you have given me. Thank you, Father Ernest, for being patient with me and reminding me how to serve at Mass. Thank you, Miss Dottie, for being a great music teacher and letting me play chimes in church. Thank you, Mrs. Oden, for being my PE teacher and pushing me to my limits. Thank you, Mrs. Bergmann, for being an amazing ELA and social studies teacher. Thank you, Mrs. Schroeder, for yelling at me, a lot. If I hadn't had hearing loss back then, I would have it from you. Thank you, Mrs. Smith, for being my favorite teacher and of course my mother. Thank you, Emersyn, for being an eighth grader and not ditching the school. And thank you, Owen, for being my friend/rival and being here with me all these years. IC you all again sometime!
