

College...Next Stop

A Unique, Interactive Program Designed for Parents of College Bound Students:

Preparing for the Joys and Challenges of the College Years

Tuesday, May 1, 2018

6:30pm – 8:00pm

Ashland Public Library

In the rush and flurry of the college search process, little to no time is spent focusing on how parents will handle the move to college and how this milestone will impact everyone in the family. College...Next Stop helps parents think about how to cope with their student's growing maturity and the new relationship that lies ahead.

From their unique vantage points as Dean of Students, college parent, and recent college graduate, the speakers will share their perspectives and engage parents.

Janice Kassman Janice Kassman spent 25 years as Dean of Students at Colby College and was Vice President of Student Affairs. She is the founder and Principal of Kassman Consulting, a company dedicated to higher education planning.

Bev Madden is a parent of two college graduates and a current college student. She is a former Colby College trustee and has served as a member of the Dover-Sherborn Regional School Committee. She is currently the chair of SPAN-DS, a community based substance abuse prevention coalition.

Sara Williams is a graduate of Dover-Sherborn High School. Following her graduation in 2009, she took a gap year before attending Boston College. She graduated from BC in 2014 and is currently working in Human Resources at an IT recruiting company. In college, Sara was involved in several volunteer groups and continues to volunteer weekly at Room to Grow, a group that provides assistance to babies born into poverty and their mothers.

This program is hosted by the Decisions at Every Turn Coalition, Ashland High School, and The Friends of the Ashland Public Library. Programs are free and open to the public. For more information about this program, please email CoalitionInfo@AshlandDecisions.org.
