FESTIVAL ON THE RAILS PORK CHOP COOK-OFF

JUDGING RULES

1. The pork chop will be judged on looks, appearance, degree of doneness (well), tenderness, and taste.
2. No branding irons or other identifying marks are to be used on the chops, and NO STUFFING OR ADDING ANY OTHER GARNISHES TO THE PORK CHOP being submitted for judging. YOUR ENTRY WILL BE AUTOMATICALLY DISQUALIFIED IF PRESENTED FOR JUDGING WITH ANYTHING ADDED OR MARKED.
3. When the chops are distributed, you will receive an official box to be used in submitting your chop to the judges. There will be 2 sealed envelopes attached to the box in which there is a number. Remove 1 of the envelopes from the box and leave 1 attached. These envelopes are to remain sealed until the awards ceremony at the main stage at 7:00 p.m. The chief cook will be told when to open their envelope. Opening the envelope prior to this time WILL result in disqualification of the team. This is to insure anonymity of all chops submitted.
4. Between 4:30 p.m. and 4:45 p.m., at the chief cook's discretion, a chop for judging is to be selected, placed in the official box and delivered to the judges' station located in the north side fire bay.
5. All chops submitted for judging are to be cooked well. For this contest well is interpreted as moist in the center of the chop. Remember that degree of doneness is one of the very important criteria in the judging.
6. There will be 5 judges. The judges will NOT know the identity of the cooking teams. The chops will be scored by number only, and the identifying number of the teams will Not be known until the awards ceremony.
7. ALL COOKS MUST BE PRESENT 7:00 p.m. FOR THE AWARDS CEREMONY.

FESTIVAL ON THE RAILS PORK CHOP COOK-OFF

PORK CHOP COOKING RULES

1. Festival on the Rails will supply the charcoal and lighter fluid.
2. FOTR will provide the pork chops. Teams are to provide ice chests for the chops.
3. NO OTHER PORK CHOPS are to be present at the cook-off. If a pork chop is found, you team WILL BE DISQUALIFIED from judging.
4. All chops are to be handled in a sanitary manner. Plastic gloves will be provided, and are to be used in handling the chops at all times.
5. Grills will be inspected for cleanliness before cooking. Unclean grills will be rejected.
6. The cooking teams provide all seasonings and "secret ingredients".
7. Cooking teams are responsible for providing tables and chairs they might need in their areas.
8. Some type of fire extinguishing device MUST be available at each cooker.
9. Pork chops may not be removed from your numbered area. Any violation of this will result in immediate disqualification from the competition.
10. All chops remain the property of FOTR. Teams are expected to account for all chops issued, either by turning in a ticket stub or a cooked chop. We realize that a chop can occasionally get lost in the cooking process. We will make allowances when necessary.
11. Please keep the consumption of alcohol to a minimum.
12. All cooks must be present at 7:00 p.m. for the Awards Ceremony.
