July, 2016

Dear Subscribers and Friends of the Essex Fox Hounds,

Our seventy-sixth Annual Essex Fox Hounds Hunter Trials will take place on Saturday, August 27, 2016 at the United States Equestrian Team. It is our most important fundraiser for the Fox Hounds. This year our goal is to raise over $30,000, but we cannot accomplish this without the participation of each and every one of you.

There are several ways to support the Trials, including participation in various exciting classes, purchasing benefactor parking spaces, purchasing program ads, and sponsoring divisions in the event. Sponsors will be acknowledged in our Annual Almanac Program and in our presentation at the event. Please see further detail on sponsorship enclosed in the Hunter Trials Prize List.

Your generous support of the EFH Hunter Trials is vital because this event provides a significant source of income to support the care and maintenance of the hounds and staff horses, as well as the stables and kennels.

We are counting on all of you to help make this our most successful year yet!

Sincerely,
VALERIE GIMBEL
JIM GORDON

Essex Fox Hounds Hunter Trials

Conditions: All Classes to be shown over obstacles simulating natural hunting country. Judge to select horses which are the best working hunters. Horses and ponies to be judged on manners, way of going, evenness of pace, style of jumping, and suitability of mount to rider. Conformation will not count. Hunting soundness is required. Entrants will be excused after three refusals or an unintentional dismount. Unruly mounts may be excused at the discretion of the judge.

It is the riders' responsibility to be ready when classes are called. The Committee will not delay any events.

Riders are requested to wear informal hunting attire: seasonal jacket, ratcatcher, or shirt and tie. Junior division open to riders who have not reached their 18th birthday. Three entries are required to fill each class, except in special classes such as family class, costume class etc.

The property owners, the Committee, and the Essex Fox Hounds will not be responsible for any accident which may occur to any horse, rider, equipment or spectator in preparation for or on the day of the Trials. The Committee reserves the right to decline any entry which, in its opinion, does not qualify.

Entries: Entries close Wednesday, August 17th, 2016

Entry Fee - $40.00 per class (except classes 16 & 17 are $50.00 and class 18 at $60.00).
