Prayer

Thank you, Gracious God for hearing our calls in every step of life. Help us to support one another, rejoicing with those who rejoice, and weeping with those who weep. For we want to be joined together as members of the body of Christ, in unity, loving one another and serving our neighbors. Give us the gifts of compassion and hearing the call of need. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Joys and Concerns (please send me your joys and concerns for prayer)

- Healing for new Covid-19 outbreaks.
- Karen Walker is doing well, all the stitches out, another month in the boot.
- Greg Finch continued recovery.
- Continued prayers for the Bowlsby family.
- Donna James as she awaits news on upcoming surgery.
- Mildred Wells has taken a turn for the worse. Please pray for her and the family.
- Everyone affected by the Hurricane
- We pray to God to know justice and to know peace. Black Lives Matter
- If someone says "we delivered a ton of veggies to Food Pantry" so far this summer, they aren't exaggerating! Amazing group of gardeners. Special thanks: Jim Serrill, Karen and Vic Miglioretto, Tom and Emilie Kroen, Larry McClure and so many more.

Prayer

Dear God, we seek courage to worship you with our whole selves, for to do so may change us. Move with us, shelter us, when we fear the seeming emptiness of our silence, bring us peace. We lift up others in our prayers today: (Moment of Silent Prayer)

When futility and frustration threaten to paralyze us, make us bold. Strengthen our spirits that we may be instruments of your peace and justice. Amen

Song The Lord's Prayer performed by Kathy Niguidula

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Luke 10:25-37 (The Parable of the Good Samaritan)

On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'

"You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live." But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'

"Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him."

Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

Benediction Prayer:

God of all nations and peoples, we offer ourselves as instruments of your peace. Fill us with the vision of a world at one, and guide our actions, that we may be counted among the peacemakers and justice seekers. In the name of God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer, from this day forth and forever more. Amen.
