

Cleveland Composers Connection

The Greater Cleveland Flute Society invites Cleveland area composers to participate in the annual concert featuring local composers. This concert is an opportunity for area composers to showcase their flute compositions to an interested audience of flutists and fans of new music. Composers are invited to submit compositions for consideration using the following guidelines:

- o Composers must have a Cleveland Connection: current or previous residence in the Cleveland/N.E. Ohio area including college attendance.
- o Composers from any area who have been commissioned by a Cleveland area flutist may submit their compositions.
- o Compositions must include flute as the primary voice: flute solo, flute and piano, flute ensemble, or flute and other instruments. Flute ensembles are encouraged, flute duets, trios, quartets, flute choir, with or without piano. Piccolo, alto flute, and bass flute may be included.
- o Composers may submit up to 3 compositions.
- o Flutists will be selected from the membership of GCFS and the GCFS Executive Board.
- o Compositions will be selected to provide a well-balanced program.
- o GCFS may perform all or select movements of the composition.
- o Compositions may be previously performed.
- o Composers must send two copies of the score and an audio CD of the piece being considered for programming to:

Greater Cleveland Flute Society
c/o Ann Droste, Archivist
4875 North Randall Drive
North Randall, Ohio 44128

- o Submissions must be received by December 31, 2016; notification will be by February 1, 2017
- o All submissions become property of the Greater Cleveland Flute Society.

The performance will take place at Judson Manor; located at 1890 E 107th St., Cleveland, 44106, Sunday, April 23, 2017 at 7:00 pm. Composers will receive a copy of the professionally recorded CD of the concert.

Questions may be directed to Bonnie Svetlik at Svetlikflute@roadrunner.com or 440.442.1006.
www.gcfs.org