

Filipino Pianists Participate in Vancouver Symphony Orchestra's 100th Anniversary Celebration

26 January 2019 – (Top photo) Filipino pianists, Vancouver-based Dorothy Uytengsu (rightmost), New York-based Rene Dalandan (leftmost) and Atlanta-based Marites Fernandez (2L), are guest performers at the Vancouver Symphony Day of Music in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra (VSO). They are joined by German-Canadian pianist Winfried Rompf (2R) for a two pianos, eight hands performance at the Pyatt Hall, VSO School of Music.

The Filipino pianists pose with Deputy Consul General Leo Tito L. Ausan, Jr. (2L) and Consul Arlene T. Magno (3L) after their well-received performance at the VSO School of Music. Also in the photo are pianist Winfried Rompf and Ms. Victoria Francisco (rightmost).

(L-R) Consul Arlene T. Magno, Filipino pianist Dorothy Uytengsu, and Deputy Consul General Leo Tito L. Ausan share a light moment with Ms. Kelly Tweeddale, President of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra (VSO). The VSO celebrated their 100th anniversary with 100 free musical performances, workshops and activities that took place simultaneously across four venues, the Orpheum Theatre, the VSO School of Music, the Annex Theatre and the Tom Lee Music Experience Centre.
