

Legal Update December 15, 2010

In his opinion dated Dec.15, 2010, Judge Roll writes: "The Court concludes that defendants DRC and HNOA have prevailed on all issues and are entitled to award of reasonable attorney's fees."

HNOA counsel "shall prepare an order which conforms to this opinion...."

Once the order has been signed the Pappas have thirty days to appeal the decision. At this point HNOA has not been advised of their intent. Since Judge Roll retires at the end of this year HNOA will immediately present its claim for fees.
