Fell, Jumped, or Pushed* Hollywood Premiere

Hit of the Festival Circuit will Premiere and be Streamable for All Devices

Los Angeles (September, 2016) – *FELL, JUMPED, or PUSHED (felljumpedorpushed.com) will be available for streaming after its WORLD PREMIERE at Arena Cinema in Hollywood, CA on November 4, 2016.

A freewheeling mix of doc- and mockumentary, FELL JUMPED or PUSHED follows a cast of Christopher Guest-y, wannabe documentary filmmakers with zero experience, setting out to save the world by making an important, feminist film. Fact and fiction commingle as they turn their mockumentary cameras on director and lead Todd Peters' unsuspecting, real-life family of women in Spokane, WA. Our crew of sweet-natured, Guffmanesque goof-ups gets busy making a mess of things, probing their subjects about their actual lives, and antics ensue. When they stumble upon the bizarre tale of the sudden disappearance of Sgt. Elmo “Curly” Warrick, the family's beloved patriarch, things start to take a personal turn. Will our visionaries without a vision find their focus? Or will they fail to see the gripping story that's right in front of them?

FELL, JUMPED, or PUSHED* is a movie about the many ways we run from ourselves, whether we are running to romance, running from mediocrity, or running off of a cliff...

The irreverent, FELL, JUMPED, or PUSHED team has launched a satirical “trailer” campaign that's garnering praise for it's humor and audacity. Check their social media sites for the latest poke in your funny eyeball!
