Dear TLS Community,

It is with sadness in my heart that I announce Paula Gibson's last day as music teacher will be Tuesday of next week. Paula recently learned that her husband is facing a serious illness, and she feels she must devote her time and energy to him at this time. Although we'll miss Paula dearly, I absolutely agree with her that caring for him should be her first priority. We thank Paula for her service this year, and I hope you'll please join me in keeping Paula and her husband in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

TLS is so very lucky that LeAnne Challenger will step in for Paula as our new music teacher. LeAnne observed/assisted with music class last week, and her official first day will be Paula's last day in order to ensure a seamless transition for our students. LeAnne possesses a Master of Music degree from the University of North Georgia and a Bachelor of Arts in Music from Wesleyan College. In addition to currently serving as the Clarkesville First United Methodist Church Children's Choir Director, Leanne is a private voice and piano tutor, and she is an accomplished performer on the local and global stage. Please join me in warmly welcoming LeAnne to the TLS family.

My very best,
Brooke
