

VETERANS TRANSPLANTATION ASSOCIATION

TRANSPLANT GAMES GRANTS

RECIPIENT

Our Mission

The mission of Veterans Transplantation Association (VTA) is to acknowledge the dedication and integrity of our Veterans who fought for this country and now living each day with a solid organ transplant. We motivate, empower, encourage, educate, and train Veterans by providing resources, advocacy, and opportunities for a better quality of life.

Transplant Games of America

Entry is open to Veteran recipients of life-supporting allografts and haemopoietic cell transplants from other individuals which require the use of immunosuppressive drug therapies.

Competitors must have been transplanted for at least 1 year, with stable graft function, be medically fit and have trained for the events in which they have entered.

Cost

Veterans Transplantation will provide $150.00 reimbursement towards Game registration fee for a recipient participating at the Transplant Games in Meadowlands, NJ (July 17-22, 2020) to take part in Games related events including the Opening and Closing ceremonies.

Requirements

- Veteran must be Honorable Discharged and show proof.
- Veteran applying for The Games Grant must have a functioning transplant or graft.
- Veteran must submit an Essay (at least 2 paragraphs) about "What it means to attend the transplant games."

Application and Selection Process

The application, essay and proof of paid registration must be submitted to dbriggs@govta.org by March 15, 2020.
