Vol. 4 No. 4 ~ Winter 2019

We hope Santa brought you surprises as nice as what Go Gentle and Simply Luck, a pair of colorful Lee Francis vintage customs owned and photographed by Uschi Huppmann, received from the jolly old elf! Happy Holidays!

A Word to the Fore: Second Thoughts, We've Had a Few...

Happy 2020! It's New Year's Day as I write this, and a passel of exciting projects are percolating for VCMEC!

First, though, a quick note: Those "second thoughts" in the title are no relation to the horses gathered in the photo! These vintage customs, in various stages of completion, were created by the late Karen Grimm. Proxy buyer Holly Carson snagged them for VCMEC at the Black Horse Ranch Liquidation Sale on October 5. Thanks so much again, Holly!

Another purchase by Holly at the sale became the catalyst for one of the most heartwarming hobby happenings of 2019. Our feature about it starts on the next page!

So, back to those second thoughts...When last issue came out, I was about to make a commando raid up to Michigan, where the bulk of our model horses are in storage, and drive as many as would fit in a mini-van down to our temporary digs in Texas.

The purpose was threefold: To just plain see our model horses again after up to 12 years in storage; to honor our promise to help fill vintage custom classes if area live shows held them; and to help launch Remake Roundup, our planned vintage custom info and sale site.

Just over 400 vintage customs--roughly a third of our collection--made the trip to Texas. We livestreamed their unboxing on Facebook (thanks to all who tuned in to those blurry hours!). But between our not wanting to say goodbye again to any of our herd if we could avoid it, little interest from others in selling theirs, and my finally landing a new job (so long, free time--but hey, hello paychecks!), we had second thoughts and decided not to launch Remake Roundup in 2019. We'll revisit it later; now we need to concentrate on our biennial live show, Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress, a.k.a. VCMEC!

Our show's third edition will be held on March 13 alongside All-Con, a Dallas four-day convention (co-founded by my brother ;^), at the Crowne Plaza Dallas in Addison, Texas. Wikipedia sums it up nicely: "All-Con provides an umbrella of content supporting fans of science fiction, fantasy, Renaissance, anime, costuming, theater/performing arts, mystery, art, crafts, collecting, and filmmaking." I'm excited that we'll be able to use the beautiful ballroom and its outside door. You don't have to buy an All-Con membership, unless you'd like to go further into the hotel to explore the con's wonders (which I certainly recommend--I made the trip from Japan three times to attend!).

While it's not part of VCMEC's mission, popular demand has convinced us to create a sister competition: We're proud to announce the first-ever Senior Equine Artist Resin Championships, or SEARCH! VCMEC (for vintage customs created prior to 2000) and SEARCH (for artist resins completed prior to 2000) will each have their own Vintage Showcase and Breed Challenge divisions. The Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress 2020 show packet is ready now--download yours at www.vcmec.org/vcmeclive.html or, if you're on Facebook, www.facebook.com/groups/vcmec/of 2020 (there'll be a much splashier public announcement once we have a snazzy logo): Innnntroducing the Model Animal Hobby History Archive, or MAHHA! Originating from Julie Froelich and Cristine Holt's generous donations of hobby publications, newsletters, show results, related books and magazines, and more, this growing wealth of ephemera will be housed in the reading room of the VCMEC Hobby House & Museum. We're happy to accept and preserve any hobby-related papers you may no longer want! Thanks to all who have contributed--we appreciate it.

An idea for another area of the VCMEC Hobby House & Museum recently suggested itself: a room called the Sanctuary, with all the models not currently displayed in the rotating exhibits. Horses could be visited or even gently studied. It would be fun to have a section called the ID Corral, too, where visitors could share their best guesses at unsigned horses or those with mystery signatures.

Finally, huge thanks to Uschi Huppmann, one of the original admins of the Vintage Model-Horse-Custs group on Facebook, for allowing us to feature her beautiful holiday photo on this issue's cover!

Best wishes for a happy, healthy 2020! See you again in March--hopefully in person at VCMEC Live III!

-Sparky C.

Coming Up on March 13: VCMEC Live III!

Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress is a gratifying get-together of enthusiasts and their pre-2000 vintage customs and (for the first time!) artist resins to compete in person for prizes.

From the people's-choice Vintage Showcase, to the judged show rings of the Breed Challenge, it's a day full of ways to celebrate these survivors from the 1960s to the 1990s!

Plan to join us March 13 for the third VCMEC Live, this time at the Crowne Plaza North, near Dallas in Addison, Texas. The show packet is available for download at the URLs at left. Be there when we again get together to make hobby history as well as revisit it!

A Diamond Treasured Anew: Hobbyists Help a Longtime Dream Come True

They're masters at playing hide-and-seek.

Stars in model horse shows coast to coast in the '80s--a battalion of them even gathered to fill a whole show ring at the 1984 Model Horse Congress--the legions of Breyer Proud Arabian Stallions remade to park-trotting poses by artist Kathleen Maestas have nearly all disappeared now.

Veteran hobbyist Sylvia Kulwicki of New York fervently hoped to find one, especially a bay. She searched for over a decade, posting in hobby forums and placing ad after ad. This year, though, serious hospitalization interrupted her search.

And that's when one peeked out.

That long-retired Maestas creation, El Mirage Diamond, was part of the legendary collection of Karen Grimm, who with husband Peter headed Black Horse Ranch in Nevada. After Karen's tragic passing in 2011, her more than 7,000 model horses have been gradually dispersed through Heather Wells' The Horse You Want. A wayward few remained at Black Horse Ranch, though--and this fall, when the 20-acre property was put on the market and a final liquidation sale there was announced, El Mirage Diamond and the other remaining vintage customs dotting the listing's photos caught the eye of collector Holly Carson (shown here giving treats to two of Black Horse Ranch's retired mares, 29-year-old Like A Dream and 28-year-old Night Vision, known to their friends as Tootsie and Daisy).

Holly has not only a topnotch collection of vintage customs--just ask anyone who's been wowed by them in person at VCMEC Live or in photos in the VCMEC Online World Championships series!--but also a heart of gold. As soon as she learned about the Black Horse Ranch liquidation sale, she posted a link to the listing to alert other vintage custom fans. She even offered to be a proxy buyer for those unable to make the trip to Nevada, since she lives a short drive away from the ranch.

One hobbyist spotted El Mirage Diamond in a photo, and asked if Holly could nab him for her. Come sale day on October 5, several shoppers made a beeline for him, but Holly was the quickest. "By the skin of my teeth I was able to grab it," she recalled. "Sadly, the person who wanted him never answered my texts and emails.

"He wasn't in perfect shape, but hey, he's a Maestas. So I offered him for auction on [Facebook group] Vintage Model-Horse-Custs, with all monies going to BHR to take care of Karen's retired horses."

There it was: the rare opportunity Sylvia Kulwicki had sought for years. But her health situation now kept her from hearing about it, much less acting on it.

That wasn't the case for her friends, though!

Kathy Wells, who's shared decades of hobby camaraderie with Sylvia in New York, put out the call to "Marney's Army," the membership of her Facebook group Remembering Marney Walerius: "A group of friends of Sylvia Kulwicki are bidding on a vintage Maestas Proud Arabian Stallion on her behalf. I've known Sylvia since the early '80s. She was one of the first people to come and support my shows. She always brought extra people and introduced many people into our hobby. Never charges enough when she sells stuff. Not a mean bone in her body. Kind heart, always the first to volunteer to help.

"Sylvia has been hospitalized for two months now [recovering from surgery]. She has finally been moved to a rehab center. Her recovery has been slow. Her spirit weak. She is just now starting to walk again. Sylvia lost her senior dog during this time and has been very sad.

"You may have seen her Wanted ads. Sylvia has been on a quest to get a Maestas bay park trotting Arabian for years. One is up for sale to high bid. This is also a benefit for Karen Grimm's real horses. Any excess money after the purchase price goes directly back to benefit Karen's remaining horses.

"If you would like to donate, please comment below. If our group wins this auction we will accept donations after. We hope this show of support will be the boost she needs to get better."

More than a dozen hobbyists leaped to help, and the group's $225 bid was the winning one. Holly Carson donated the proceeds toward the care of Black Horse Ranch's retired mares, and El Mirage Diamond and the remains of his mane, which had come unglued over the years, soon arrived at Kathy's Toll Free Farm.

Kathy crafted him a beautiful blue Arabian halter, Sylvia's favorite color, and then set about rehairing him with some mohair donated by Lynda Strohmeier Gillette. "This horse will really lift Sylvia's spirits, knowing her friends did this for her and how much we all love her," wrote Lynda. "Model horse friends are really the best!"

The trip to present him to Sylvia was abruptly put on hold, though: News came from Sylvia's close friend Judy Wenrich that Sylvia was back in the hospital, with no visitors allowed.

"I guess this setback will give me more time to fix his bird's nest of a tail," Kathy reported to Marney's Army. Not long after, when longtime friend and legendary customizer Beth Peart dropped by to help with the stallion's uncooperative tail, Judy called with the news that Sylvia could again have visitors!

Kathy and Beth hit the road together, with some excitement along the way for El Mirage Diamond.

"I'd used all the mohair up that Lynda sent so Beth made me stop enroute and bought supplies to redo," recalled Kathy. "No mohair so she bought some yarn and unraveled it into micro strands and used these fibers to do the tail. She did a great job while I was driving there!"

At long last, on November 3, the Maestas vintage custom bay park-trotting Arabian stallion of Sylvia's dreams was presented to her by (from left to right in the photo at top right) Beth, Kathy, Judy, and Sylvia's cousin Bobbi Jo Kulwicki, along with a cheery card signed with the names of donors Ardith Carlton, Holly Goldman Craig, Nancy Falzone, Julie Froelich, Lynda Strohmeier Gillette, Jody Hollenbeck, Bobbi Jo Kulwicki, Melissa Meader, Paula O'Keefe, Beth Peart, Anita Poole, Sue Rowe, Kathy Wells, and Judy Wenrich.

"Sylvia was truly touched, nearly breaking into tears," Kathy beamed. "My thanks to everyone who donated to this cause. You made my heart sing, and certainly Sylvia's! It is so refreshing to see friends come together to help another. Marney would be proud."

El Mirage Diamond may have gotten caught in his expert game of hide-and-seek, but the good things that rare occasion led to, and the hobbyists who helped them happen, made for one of the brightest highlights of 2019.

"In short, the models aren't the only thing that are 'vintage' here--my eyes have been around for 55 years now, and they're not as good as they once were! Doing everything you can to help your horse's photo be in sharp focus, well-lit, free of background clutter, and with the model at a flattering angle, is very much appreciated by your judge, and will help show off your model to be its very best!

"It was very difficult to choose one favorite in each division among so many wonderful examples, but here they are:

1960s/'70s DIVISION: DIAMOND HANDSOME DEVIL (BH)

Grey Trakehner stallion, CM by Kathleen Maestas in the late 1970s

"This is one of those model horse photos that fools me into thinking it's a photo of a real horse, every time I see it! This is also an amazing remake for the time, a Breyer Traditional Black Beauty remade into a phase of the canter that you don't often see in a model. His paint job makes him look soft and touchable, his mane and tail are flowing just right with his motion, and he looks like a horse who's just enjoying himself with a little exercise in the pasture on a sunny afternoon."

Judge's Comments and Judge's Choice!

Leg 5 judge Corky Visminas writes, "It was amazing to see all these time-traveling vintage custom models--it's gratifying to see that there's so many awesome horses out there!

"Just a few words about the photos. I saw photos that were poorly focused, photos with skewed color and/or contrast, extremely busy backgrounds, poor lighting, and horses photographed at unflattering angles (i.e. at a 3/4 angle with the hindquarters pointed toward the camera). These factors impaired quite a few otherwise very nice horses.

"There were also quite a few models photographed from a very high angle. Photographing the model from the same level it's on (lie down on your stomach if you have to when photographing outdoors, or elevate your surface if indoors), with the camera trained on their withers or thereabouts, will give a much more realistic look and not distort their proportions.

"Also, if you're scanning an old photo, please keep an eye on contrast and color levels.

Grey American Saddlebred mare, CM by Sue Guffey (remake) and Sue Sudekum (repaint/hair) in 1986

"This is a gutsy remake (a Breyer Smoky?!) and it worked very well! Second, her gorgeous dapple grey paint job is unusual in that it gives her a plush, velvety look. I have no idea how Sue achieved that effect, but it's amazing! Third, this mare is loaded with spark and attitude, just like an ASB should be. It's always a pleasure to see this personality- plus mare in the ring!"

1990s DIVISION:
GGK TIQATU (SN)

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Maren Landschof in 1991

"My favorite among the many beautiful models present in the 1990s classes is GGK Tiqatu. She's a Proud Arabian Mare repainted and haired dapple grey (hmm, all three of my Judge's Choices are dapple greys...LOL, sorry, it just turned out that way!).

"There have probably been 10,000 PAMs repainted and haired dapple grey over the years, and I own a few of them--but this mare has such an incredibly calm, sweet presence, and she's perfectly groomed. This is the perfect representation of the horse I'd dream about owning when I was a kid!

"A big thank you to every one of you for letting me see your vintage collections!"

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who had won what, the owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

BROTHER LOVE

Black leopard Appaloosa stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed, Overall Champion Color and Overall Champion Workmanship

All hail the VCMEC Online World Championships' first two-time Triple Crown winner! After being awarded the Overall Championship in all three shows in the 1960s/'70s division two years ago to take his first Triple Crown, Brother Love has done it again!

Owner Lois Bennington shares some details about his origin: "The concept behind Brother Love was the real Appaloosa Prince Plaudit (a few spot leopard). I don't think I sent his picture but I did send a picture of a real Appaloosa for Nancy Strowger to mimic.

"I wanted a stable suffix for my Apps and chose 'LOVE' and that naturally led to Brother Love, which was a song I liked by Neil Diamond."

Judge Corky Visminas writes, "You just can't go wrong with the Classic Quarter Horse Stallion mold, as far as I'm concerned; it's one of my all-time favorites, even if the modern type of Appaloosa has gotten pretty far from his chunky, hunky build. Also, Brother Love is proof that a repaint can go just as far as a full body-parts-moved custom--starting out with such 'good bones' will result in a winning presentation! And Nancy Strowger cements her reputation as one of the best repainters working at the time with this subtle and realistic Appaloosa coat. He's one of my all-time favorite models--congratulations to Lois!"

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON

Chestnut Morgan stallion, CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the late 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Color

After prior turns in the spotlight in the Spring 2017, Autumn 2017, and Summer 2019 issues, Dane Tyler Bennington has earned a fourth Victory Lap! What does owner Lois Bennington love best about him? "What can I say except, I wish I had hair like him!" Lois writes. "I love his color and Laura Hornick-Behning knocked his paint job out of the park."

DIAMOND HANDSOME DEVIL

Grey Trakehner stallion, CM by Kathy Maestas in the late 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

This champion is one of owner Betty Hook's favorites! She writes, "Oh wow, I love everything about him. That he IS a handsome devil. He was named after my very first Collie. I love that he's vintage and cherish the fact that he's a Kathy Maestas creation. And I love that he's haired. I love those haired horses!!"

MON'NAFA RANI

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) in the late 1980s

1980s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Champion Workmanship

Mon'Nafa Rani brings holiday greetings to all in her fifth Victory Lap! Cheryl Ridge of Australia, her owner since 1989, writes, "December 2019 marks the 30th Anniversary of celebrating a dream come true for me.

"We hear about 'holy grails' in the hobby. Owning a dapple grey Arab by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) was mine. It was 'pie in the sky' thinking a Minkiewicz creation (custom/RRH Breyer) would ever be within my reach, let alone Sarah exporting one to little old me in a faraway land.

"It was actually Sarah's Mon'Nafa Rani and her brother Jamil Mhuratt I was smitten with, having seen them in some photo show results. Winning some HUGE classes. 1st and 2nd Best Paint Job in a class of 576 entrants, for example. However it was their beauty that haunted me more than their achievements. Captivated by their realism, I tried, but Sarah could not part with either!

We exchanged hand written or hand typed letters across the oceans--pre-Internet days. I don't think I have copies of letters I sent to Sarah but I certainly kept various letters she sent me. One such letter was accompanied by photos of some of her show Arabs!

Shadhat Monfees (fleabitten Classic Shetan/Sagr/Johar), Shadjir (rose grey CAS), Impala (chestnut CAM), Gai Naamfir (chestnut Johar), Naafi (fleabitten Sagr), Bhajatt (rose grey Sham), Brythlazar (bay PAS), Jamil Mhuratt (grey PAS), Monsata il Shijar (grey Shetan/Sagr), Rhymnik (white PAM), Kharcaza (chestnut PAM). WHAT A HERD! Mon'Nafa Rani (grey PAM) was part of that herd.

"In December 1989 there was an unexpected twist. Sarah was so swamped with work and backlog of commissions, she was forced to sell some of her stable to cancel some of those orders! The words, right down the page of one of her chatty letters: 'Would you still be interested in Mon'Nafa Rani, the dapple grey PAM? I am prepared to sell her to you.'

"Fast forward to a few weeks later: 'Well, here she is. I hope she lives up to your expectations! She was very hard to part with, but she's going to a good home so that makes it OK. I hope you like her! And I hope she does well for you in the 1990 show season!'

"Well, Sarah, it is 30 years on. I adore 'Rani.' I feel truly blessed to own an early example of your work, and be a part of your journey. THANK YOU for entrusting me with her. Thank you to her admirers worldwide, and the judges for awarding Mon'Nafa Rani over the decades."

SMOKE BAR SYNDICATE

Grey Quarter Horse stallion, CM by Carla Clifford in 1984

1980s Overall Champion Color and Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Carla Clifford writes, "Smoke Bar Syndicate was the very first dapple grey I ever painted. He was created in 1984 on the Adios mold. About the only prep work I did on this model was to carve out his ears a little and smooth most of his seams. Back then that's about all you needed to do! How times have changed! I gave him a craft fur, hock-length tail which was appropriate for Quarter Horses at that time. I don't know why, but I also gave him a roached mane! I glued the fur on, then cut it short and glued it down on the neck.

"I took him to his first live show in 1984 when I lived in California at the time. I think it was held at CeCe O'Connor's house in her garage. It was a small show but very competitive! Smoke was Grand Champion of Show, earning a nice little trophy. Boy, was I ever surprised!

"His next live show was at Cheri Elder and Shelley Bulteman's show, The Golden State Model Horse Convention, in August 1984. This show was the forerunner of the Western Regional Congress shows that were to follow later. Smoke was again named Grand Champion of Show, winning 6 overall division rosettes.

"I showed him for several more years at live shows and also photo shows, where he racked up many champion and reserve awards. He was my best show horse at the time. He is retired and graces my curio cabinet now, enjoying a well-earned rest. He has always been my favorite custom and I intend to enjoy him for many more years!!"

DARK COMMANDER

Bay American Saddlebred stallion, CM by Adren King and Jason Ross in 1986

1980s Overall Res. Champion Color

Colleen Headley writes of this Triple Crown champ, "So I get a message from AC that Dark Commander has the chance for another writeup...I look back over my shoulder to the hutch where he currently resides and see him looking sidelong at me as if to say 'Of course I get mentioned again!' He is so precious to me with his own character, and to see judges liking him is icing on the cake. He is a Ross/King/Durbin collaboration, and he makes me smile every day!"

21ST CENTURY BOY

Silver dapple American Show Shetland Pony stallion, CM by Julie Froelich in 1987

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

First featured in the Spring 2017 issue, this show pony supreme is back for his second Victory Lap! Kay Myers writes, "I'm trying to think if there is anything new that I haven't said before about this guy. While he's shown in a few online shows in the past couple of years, this is the first year that he has begun to compete in MEPSA's mail-in photo show series. So far, so good--qualified for the Champ Show in his first outing.

"He is one of the few models that get to be in the glass-fronted cabinet in the living room. He stands there, looking sternly at me, mentally telling me that he needs to get out to a live show again!"

IMA ROCK-A-TEER

Chestnut extended blanket Appaloosa gelding, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1993

1990s Overall Champion Breed, Overall Champion Color, and Overall Champion Workmanship

Welcome the eye-grabbing fellow who's become only the fifth Triple Crown winner in the history of the VCMEC Online World Championships series!

Owner Cheryl Monroe writes, "Oh my! Ima Rock-a-teer was purchased directly from Lisa Shepard when I made a trip to see her in late 1993 and saw him and others 'wink.' Good grief, like all her work, I couldn't resist him!"

"He has only been very lightly shown years ago, and was usually in the ribbons. A CM Lady Phase, his wildly spotted chestnut extended blanket appy coat was what enticed my purchase. Her details on him are amazing! And yes, his name IS based on the movie 'The Rocketeer'!"

Judge Corky Visminas comments, "I just love this horse! His conformation can't be beat, he's so colorful (I love the tiny white spots that blend into his pattern on his neck and withers), and he just looks so kind and willing. Lisa's work is exceptional, and although this is a fairly simple customization, it works splendidly on all levels. Congratulations to Cheryl!"

GOSSAMER WINGS

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) in 1993

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Mighty few horses have earned five Victory Laps: Jamil Mhuratt, Mon'Nafa Rani...and now Gossamer Wings! [Editor's note: With next issue's Victory Lap being the last for a while, watch for an index of all Victory Lap horses and Triple Crown winners since 2016 next issue!]

What does owner Kirsten Wellman love best about Gossamer Wings? "Everything! :D The artistry of the sculpting and painting is of course sublime--Sarah's work has always been ahead of its time, and Gossamer Wings is no exception.

"I've always thought her pose was particularly unique, too. Even now, models balanced on one foot are not super common, and Gossamer Wings is deliberately positioned at a slight angle as though she's about spook or cavort off in another direction in the next stride. It's a subtle touch, but it I think it shows an incredible understanding of the nature and movement of horses."

LE COMTE DE MONTE CRISTO

Chestnut Belgian stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1995

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Cheryl Monroe writes, "The big red man, Le Comte de Monte Cristo, named after the real Belgian of very similar name from 1890.

"He was purchased from Robin Clark as 'Cinnabar's Conquest'; under that name he was shown a bit and did very well.

"He is a very drastic CM of the Breyer Clyde Mare of all things! Done by Lisa Shepard in 1995, I was so grateful that Robin offered him for sale! He is a GORGEOUS shaded dapple chestnut, and I was quite taken with his presence. He has done very well under both names. So tickled that others also enjoy him!"
