Other Business:

- ❖ Christina Adams, THO, came to the meeting to give her inspection report to the Selectboard for review before submitting her final signed copy. Alden read the report aloud in the meeting for everyone to hear. The Board agreed that the report was very well done and was approved for her final submission. Christina will be bringing the final draft to the Clerk's office on Thursday, February 17, 2022, to be filed in the office. She will also be mailing a copy of this report to George Tarby, who made the complaint, and to the Landlord of the building Mr. Tarby is occupying. A copy of this report Christina and her Husband Troy Adams, Deputy Health Office, discussed one more complaint that they had received from Mr. Tarby. He had complained about the State and Town Plow trucks dumping snow in his driveway and felt that this was being done deliberately. Christina said that she had explained to him that she had no authority over the plow trucks for the State or the Town, and that snow in the driveway happens to everyone.
